FEB. 6, 2020: GARDEN PROJECT AT BRIDGETON HIGH

The Bridgeton Rotary Club met on Thursday, Feb. 6, at the Green Olive Restaurant in Hopewell. The speaker was be Carl Dolente, Principal of BHS.

Carl and Bill Waterman talked about the Bridgeton Rotary Club's Garden Project to be built in the school's courtyard. They showed plans for the area including seating, tables and plantings. Students will participate in the planning and construction. It also includes vegetable garden areas where the produce will be used by the school for food preparation. Carolyn King announced that a Rotary District grant for $2,500, requiring matching funds of $2,500 from the club, has been approved.

Donations of cash, services and materials are welcomed to help with this project. She said John Casarow already donated $100 and at this meeting Dave Wilson offered to provide materials and labor to install sprinkling system for the project. Let Carolyn King know how you can help.
