Honoring a 30 year old promise to 'Give Back'- Roger Rolfe

In his youth, Roger Rolfe on top of Mt. Kilimanjaro

Roger Rolfe and his wife, Amy, joined Water 4 Mercy on our Ndebwe Donor Trip in April to the Dodoma region in Tanzania. He was returning to Tanzania to honor a commitment he had made over 30 years ago after climbing Mt. Kilimanjaro.

"I saw how happy these people were while lacking the basic necessities we take for granted. I told myself that when I could, I would do something to help these people somehow".

Bonding with our African rooster

Amy & Roger - Young at Heart

"I felt compelled to take action when I heard about Water 4 Mercy's partnership with Israeli NGO, innovation:Africa. By implementing advanced solar powered water pumps and innovative drip irrigation for farming, they are providing a permanent solution that will end thirst and break the cycle of poverty in Africa.

And because their systems are remotely monitored, it gave me confidence that my donation will have a lasting impact and remain 100% successful. That was a very important factor for me!"

Roger said it was a 'no-brainer' donating $18,000 to Water 4 Mercy rather than pay that amount to the IRS. A financial advisor, Roger went on to say that "the IRS encourages you to give money to charity—if you itemize, you can take that amount off your gross income when you're figuring out your taxes".

Please consult with your tax advisor or contact Brian H. Rolfe, CFP® at The Rolfe Group.
