

Water 4 Mercy is transforming vicious cycles of poverty into Cycles of Success with AITEC - Agricultural Innovation & Technology Center.

AITEC is a dynamic partnership with Don Bosco Technical Institutes, CultivAid, MASHAV and Innovation: Africa. We are establishing Innovative Agricultural schools that will equip young agronomists with the knowledge and experience in Israeli agricultural technology and know-how. Moreover, AITEC will provide support to regional farmers and development projects, strengthening their agricultural skills and ensuring their profitability increases.

AITEC is a model that is seeking to expand throughout Africa.

The Optimal Team with the Optimal Solution

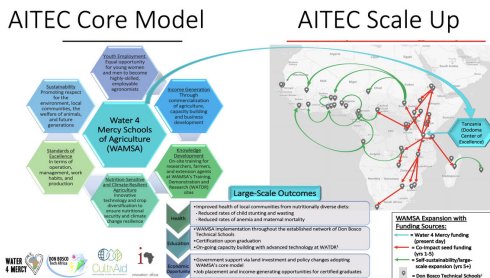

Surplus onions yield more profits at market

AITEC's multi faceted and holistic solutions will end thirst, hunger and poverty by sharing innovative and advanced solar, water & agricultural solutions developed by Israeli experts.

The AITEC Training, Development and Research sites are specifically designed to benefit surrounding communities, farmers, governments, researchers, commercial industry, international trade, etc., and set up as profit-centers.

Food knowledge and production will transform and enable African countries to be on the road towards self sustainability in 3 to 5 years.

AITEC Scale-Up: Transferring innovative and advanced solar, water & agricultural solutions.
