

Kremlin Special Adviser: "Ukraine Will Be Ended - A New Hegemonic State of 200 Million Russian-Speakers Is Being Created in Eastern Europe (vid)

"The map of the EU will change and it will become a tombstone for globalization"

02/12/2022 - 14:13

An important intervention was made by a Russian expert analyst on public Russian television, revealing the country's strategy after the complete dissolution of Ukraine.

For the first time, there is public talk of creating a new hegemonic state of 200 million Russian speakers in Eastern Europe that will act as a counterweight and conflict with the EU, Germany and Poland, breaking up globalization so far.

Nikolai Vavilov, a Sinologist by profession with very good connections within the Chinese Communist Party and the Kremlin, said on Russian television:

"Russia is fighting triumphantly against more than 1 billion people of the Western world.

During the whole of this year, the Western world has not been able to face Russia.

All average Russian citizens will agree with me. There is hot water, there is food, there are jobs, our transport works, our subways work, our salaries are paid and we are already developing, our economy is being restructured.

Actually this is a triumph of Russia.

There is no isolating Russia, especially since China joins Russia in this triumph.

China, India, Southeast Asia, Africa and Latin America have also partnered with us.

Ukrainian is a dialect of the Russian language. Ukrainian language does not exist. There is only dialect. Two weeks would be enough to study this dialect.

But why is the West so afraid of us?

The enemy stands before Moscow and St. Petersburg.

Within 10, 15 or 20 years we will re-establish our control over this region (Ukraine-Former Soviet states). All these states that call themselves "independent" will be absorbed into one big Russian motherland.

What does this mean;

In Europe of 500 million people, a collective of 200 million Russian-speakers may emerge who will speak a common language.

She can calmly claim the Balkans, Poland, etc.

There are 80 million Germans including Turks, Arabs, Pakistanis. The English have 60 million including Pakistanis etc

A hegemon state will emerge in Eastern Europe.

We see that the West is powerless to do anything. A giant community will appear in 10-15 years.

We have to shed the old suit of the last 20-30 years, the worn-out suit of globalization.

We have to exchange it for a new ideology, a new worldview, new social structures, a new structure of domestic politics." <https://warnews247-gr.translate.google/eidikos-symvoulos-kremlinou-tafoplaka-se-pagkosmiopoiisi-kai-ee-dimiourgeitai-neo-kratos-igemonas-200-ekat-rosophonon-stin-an-evropi/? x tr sl=auto& x tr tl=en& x tr hl=en>

Tsar Bomba vs Ukraine: US Simulates 100 Megaton Nuclear Strike on Kyiv - Watch Video

They will all be killed in a 65 kilometer zone!

02/12/2022 - 21:49

In a move that raises many questions, American analysts proceeded as they simulated an attack on Kyiv with a 100 megaton nuclear bomb! In fact, the Americans simulated an attack with a Russian strategic weapon, specifically with a Tsar Bomba!

Tsar Bomba (meaning king of bombs) was developed between 1956 and 1961 when the Soviet Union became involved in an arms race with the United States.

It was the largest hydrogen bomb ever made and was 3,300 times more powerful than the bomb that hit Hiroshima.

The hydrogen bomb, containing more than 50 million tons of conventional explosives, was tested in October 1961. The bomb was detonated and exploded 4,000 meters above Novaya Zimlya (New Earth) Island in the Arctic Ocean.

But why did the Americans simulate a nuclear strike with a strategic weapon and not a tactical one? Why did they want to see maximum losses?

100 megaton strike in Kyiv?

The simulation showed, as expected, that the effect of a 100 megaton nuclear strike on the center of Kiev was absolutely devastating.

The approximate zone of destruction of the nuclear bomb, without the effect of secondary factors of the nuclear explosion, is about 65 kilometers. This, for obvious reasons, has devastating consequences for almost every object in the area.

Taking into account the population living in Kyiv and in the zone of destruction of the nuclear bomb, the number of victims will be almost 2.5 million people.

Almost certainly, in this case, neighboring Ukrainian regions will be affected, as well as the territory of the Chernobyl nuclear power plant and Belarus.

To date, only one nuclear bomb has been created in the world, which carries approximately the same destructive effect, this is the Tsar Bomb. For comparison, the power of all nuclear warheads of the Sarmat intercontinental ICBM is only 8 megatons.

However, it is noteworthy that in the near future, the Poseidon nuclear submarine drone, the power of which is estimated at 100 megatons, may appear in service with Russia.

We remind you that recently the Russians launched against Kiev the Kh-55 missile (Russian name X-55) which carried a virtual nuclear warhead (nuclear combat unit simulator).

The Kh-55 missile (Russian designation X-55) was developed to carry a nuclear payload.

The Ukrainians then concluded that either this missile with a dummy nuclear warhead was simply being used as a somewhat less expensive decoy aimed at misleading Ukrainian air defense systems, or the Russians had simulated a nuclear strike. <https://warnews247-gr.translate.google/tsar-bomba-enation-tis-oukranias-oi-ipa-prosomoiosan-pyriniko-ctypima-100-megatonon-me-stocho-to-kievo-vinteo/? x tr sl=auto& x tr tl=en& x tr hl=en> [go to site for video – rdb]

Mate S.Surovikin's movement: The Ukrainian Army is in a state of emergency - All elite units are being moved to Liman, Kupyansk, Bakhmut

The Russians have entered Vodiane and are clearing Nevelskoye

03/12/2022 - 00:28

The Ukrainian Army has entered a state of emergency in the Donbass as Russian forces advance on several fronts. The Russians have entered Vodiane and are very close to clearing Nevelskoye as well, shielding the Donetsk perimeter.

Under the brunt of the Russian advance, the Ukrainian military command is moving the 80th, 81st Airborne Brigade and the 95th Separate Airborne Brigade to Donbass.

At the same time, the 65th Brigade and the 16th Battalion of the 58th Independent Motorized Brigade leave Zaporizhia and rush to Bakhmut.

All indications are that the Ukrainian offensive towards Melitopol and Berdyansk has been called off. Their primary purpose now is to strengthen the defense of Bakhmut. But for how much and at what cost?

We can say that S.Surovikin put the gun to the temple of V.Zelensky and the Ukrainian generals.

And this is because the Ukrainian military command is faced with a nightmarish choice:

Which areas to reinforce with military forces and which to abandon. Even with existing forces and not counting the 250,000 Russian reservists who have not yet moved to the Ukrainian fronts, the Ukrainians cannot hold out.

Therefore very soon Kyiv will have to decide which areas it will surrender and which it will defend to the end.

Kyiv Moves Elite Units to Donbass

According to information, the Ukrainian administration has decided to strengthen its forces in certain areas in Donbas by sending elite units.

These are mainly the Krasnolimansk and Kupyansk directions. The reason for the hasty transfer of forces is the fear of the Ukrainians that the Russian troops will break their defense arrangement.

Under the weight of adverse developments, the Ukrainian military command is moving the 80th, 81st Airborne Brigade and the 95th Separate Airborne Brigade to the Krasny Liman and Kupyansk regions.

We are talking about additional reserve formations of these brigades, left for emergencies.

The recent successful actions of the Russian military forced the command of the Armed Forces of Ukraine to take these measures in order to prevent a possible collapse.

We remind that the Armed Forces of Ukraine continuously carried out attacks for two months near the cities of Svatovo and Kremennaya in order to break the front in the Lugansk zone of responsibility.

As a result of the offensive of the Armed Forces of Ukraine, the cities of Kupyansk and Krasny Liman were recaptured by the Armed Forces of Ukraine – the former in mid-September and the latter in early October.

The Russian army entered Vodiane

Donetsk forces entered the town of Vodiane. The stronghold of the Armed Forces of Ukraine is now a thing of the past.

The "Sparta" and "Somalia" forces have been operating in the area for months with T-80 tanks together with the "Storm" unit of the 1st Slavic Brigade of the Donetsk People's Militia.

Vodiane, together with the settlement "Experience" were strongholds of the Ukrainians for many years. From there, the Ukrainian attacks against Donetsk and Makeevka began.

The Ukrainian forces, due to losses and strong pressure, are forced to abandon their positions.

The losses they have suffered are great. The images show the leveling of the area along with the Ukrainian positions.

The Ukrainian stronghold in Nevelskoye also falls

In addition to Vodiane, the situation of Ukrainians has worsened in both Pervomayskoye and Nevelskoye.

Russian troops are constantly pounding Ukrainian positions. According to the Russians, Nevelskoye will be cleared very soon.

Forces of the 100th Guards Brigade of the 1st Army Corps of Donetsk are operating in the area under the cover of the Russian Air Force.

"This village was turned by the Armed Forces of Ukraine into a strong fortified area, but our attack has destroyed the enemy's defenses," the Russians said.

"Our troops continue to advance, tightening the ring around Avdiivka," said Denis Pushilin, deputy head of Donetsk.

He also mentioned the successes of the forces in the Maryinsky and Artemovskiy directions, where a number of settlements were captured in recent days.

Zelensky to ban Ukrainian Orthodox Church

Aims crackdown at groups 'linked' to Russia

By WND News Services Published December 2, 2022 at 3:25pm

Banned! That soon could be the status of the Ukrainian Orthodox Church in Ukraine.

The government there has confirmed plans to draw up a law banning churches that are "affiliated" with Russia.

Volodymyr Zelensky claims the move is required to "prevent Moscow being able to 'weaken Ukraine from within,'" according to multiple reports.

There have been claims from that nation's National Security and Defense Council that some of the churches in Ukraine are "taking orders" from Moscow.

Some of those locations even have been "raided" already.

Reuters is reporting that there is suspicion some locations are involved in "subversive activities of Russian special services in the religious environment of Ukraine.

The government in Ukraine also claims some church locations are coordinating a pro-Moscow information campaign.

According to a report at Gateway Pundit, Zelensky already has banned opposition parties and seized their property.

"Zelensky also closed all of the TV stations and consolidated them into one state-run channel," the report said.

"Ukraine has had to take extraordinary measures to fight Russia's invasion. Among them, the government has consolidated the country's television outlets and dissolved rival political parties. It says it needs to do this to maintain a united front in fighting Russia," NPR reported. MORE - <https://www.wnd.com/2022/12/zelensky-ban-ukrainian-orthodox-church/>

Kyiv: Embassies and Consulates of Ukraine in Europe received "bloody packages" with animal eyes

The packages contain liquid with a special color and smell

"Bloody packages" containing animal eyes are being received by several Ukrainian embassies in Europe, according to Ukrainian Foreign Ministry spokesman Oleg Nikolenko.

In his post on Facebook, Nikolenko claims that those who sent the packages have doused them with a liquid with a special color and smell .

"We are studying the meaning of this message," he noted in his post.

Their dispatch comes after a series of letter-bombs found in Spain in the past few days.

As he explained, such packages have been received by the embassies of Ukraine in Hungary, the Netherlands, Poland, Croatia and Italy, as well as the consulates general of the country in Naples (Italy), Krakow (Poland) and the consulate in Brno (Czech republic).

"Ukrainian diplomats will continue to work successfully to strengthen Ukraine's defense capability and provide Ukrainians with the necessary energy equipment to survive the winter ," he points out in your post, noting that

Kiev is working with foreign countries on the threats it receives , and seeks to identify those involved in them in order to bring them to justice.

Draconian security measures from B.Putin: Russia establishes the single registry of "foreign agents"

Affiliate Registry - Bans Expanded

02/12/2022 - 13:21

The Ministry of Justice of Russia today, December 1, the first day that the new law "On controlling the activity of persons under foreign influence" comes into force, published the unified register of so-called "foreign agents", which replaces the four separate registers up to now .

The single register is established under the "Foreign Agents" Act which can now designate as "foreign agents" persons who are not financed from abroad.

The head of the human rights organization "Agora" Pavel Chikov, referring to the unified register, said that in this list there are 493 entries, which is more than the "foreign agents" recorded so far, because it also includes organizations that had been included in the directories, but were later removed from them.

Today in Russia there are 348 "foreign agents" which include citizens, organizations, including the media.

"Foreign agents" can now be considered any Russian or foreign organizations, either natural persons, if they have foreign support or are under foreign influence, but also if they carry out political activity, or gather information about Russia's military and technological activity "which may be used against the security of the country."

Bans on 'foreign agents' extended

The new rules expand the number of prohibitions on "foreign agents." They are not allowed to work as teachers in state and municipal organizations or generally teach, educate minors and disseminate any information among themselves.

"Foreign agents" will not be able to be members of electoral commissions, participate in advisory, advisory and expert bodies set up by the authorities or conduct independent anti-corruption assessments and public events. The latter contradicts Article 31 of the Constitution on freedom of assembly.

"Foreign agents" will not be able to work in the public sector, self-government, the Federal Security Service (FSB), the Federal Penitentiary Service (FSIN), the Ministry of the Interior, the Prosecutor's Office, the Investigative Committee and the Federal Bailiff Service .Nor will they be able to enlist for military service under contract.This status, however, does not constitute a reason for exemption from military service and conscription.

Register for collaborators

The new law introduces a registry for citizens who "collaborate" with "foreign agents" (referring to those who worked for "foreign agent" organizations or received from the "foreign agent" money or assets). However, the restrictions that apply to 'foreign' agents' do not extend to the persons who cooperated with them.

As of yesterday, December 1st, the new list of regulations that "foreign agents" must apply when publishing their topics also comes into force. From now on they must write "This publication (information)" instead of "The publication in question", and they must also mention the name of the organization if it is a legal entity or the surname, first name and patronymic if it is a natural person face. This rule must also be observed by the partners of the organizations - "foreign agents".

Yesterday the Federation Council passed a bill introducing amendments to "deal with foreign interference" in relation to the "foreign agents" legislation.

The bill amends 39 branch laws "to ensure terminological and substantive consistency" with the Act to Control the Activities of "Foreign Agents," said Senator Andrei Klimov, one of the bill's authors. He also added that it institutes restrictions on people identified as "foreign agents". <https://warnews247-gr.translate.google.com/translate?sl=auto&tl=en&hl=en&url=https://www.warnews247.com/news/2022/12/01/federation-council-passes-bill-to-control-foreign-agents-activities/>

Combat readiness in US EDs in Lithuania: Serious Ukraine-Belarus border incidents - Latvia seals border with Russia

Latvia destroyed the bridge at the border crossing (video)

02/12/2022 - 20:29

US forces stationed in Lithuania have been ordered to combat readiness amid renewed Ukraine-Belarus border incidents. Belarusian forces have shot down three Ukrainian drones in a short period of time.

Both the Americans and the Baltic states expect hostilities to break out soon, centered on Belarus.

Ukrainian forces are constantly sending surveillance drones to record the positions of Russian and Belarusian forces as well as the disposition of their forces.

According to the State Border Committee of Belarus, two drones were shot down by anti-drone weapons on November 2 and 16, while another entered Belarusian airspace from Volyn in western Ukraine on November 26.

At the same time, for an inexplicable reason, an armed Ukrainian soldier crossed the border of Belarus, the State Border Commission (CPC) of the Republic of Belarus said, releasing the relevant video.

Latvia destroyed the bridge at the border crossing

A violation of the 2010 border demarcation agreement is being cited by the Russians as Riga demolished the pedestrian bridge over the Sinyukha River at the Mound of Friendship, a man-made mound on the border of Belarus, Russia and Latvia.

"Latvia destroyed the footbridge on the country's border with Russia at the border where 3 countries meet. In this way, Riga violated the 2010 agreement, which defines the intersection of three states:

Russia, Belarus and Latvia. The bridge was an important part of the demarcation agreement," Russians comment.

The video of the demolition of the pedestrian bridge on the Latvian-Belarusian border at the Tomb of Filias was made public.

The Daugavpils Department of the State Border Guard of the Ministry of Internal Affairs of Latvia warned the Belarusian border guards in advance about the demolition of the bridge. The explanation was the need to carry out work on engineering and technical facilities.

But later they destroyed the bridge into small fragments.

The Tomb of Friendship was filled in 1959 with soil from the graves of partisans who died in these places during the Great Patriotic War. Every year in July a meeting of war veterans and patriotic youth is held here.

"I don't know how to humanly express what just happened. How can you hate our history, our grandparents so much?! This mound was filled with those partisans who fought. And the earth was removed from the graves of the partisans," said the correspondent of the newspaper "Dvinskaya Pravda" Larisa Zaitseva.

Meanwhile, as noted by Denis Glebko, a representative of the Polotsk border detachment, Latvian workers dismantled the bridge without the consent of the Belarusian side.

We remind you that the Latvian government has declared a state of emergency on the border with Russia. This concerns areas in the eastern part of the country, which is a member of the EU and NATO, including airports and railway stations.

The Latvian government also decided to close the Pedetse border crossing in order to limit the number of Russians entering the country. In addition, the border guard was ordered to increase its patrols on the border with Russia.

Latvia completely closes its borders fearing the worst-case scenario...

The US military in Lithuania was put on alert

The corps of US armed forces stationed in Lithuania is moving from deterrence to combat readiness.

This was stated by the commander of the Lithuanian army Valdemaras Rupshis.

“Initially, the main goal was deterrence: to show that (the Americans) are here. Previously, the units were more busy with training, with the aircraft, familiarizing themselves with the terrain, tactical operations.

But the possibility can increase and change the form of presence, which is proven now that the situation has changed.

These units and equipment are deployed in such a way that they could fight immediately. There was a transition from one regime to another ,” Rupshis said on Lithuanian radio.

He added that the US military would remain in Lithuania on a rotating basis until at least 2025.

Netanyahu: Lapid inciting rebellion among military officers, local authorities

Likud leader assails outgoing PM for urging municipalities to fight educational dictates of homophobic MK, reportedly warning IDF general of far-right attempts ‘to gain control’

By TOI staff Today, 3:19 pm

Prime Minister-designate Benjamin Netanyahu on Friday castigated outgoing prime minister Yair Lapid for “attempting to incite rebellion among military officers and local authorities against the elected government.”

His comments came after Lapid urged local authority leaders not to cooperate with an extremist far-right member of the incoming government on educational issues, and after he was reported to warn a military general earlier this week against allowing the far-right “to gain control over the military.”

“Lapid’s conduct is dangerous and hurts democracy,” Netanyahu said in a statement. “We must leave the IDF out of any political debate. Senior officers certainly must not be incited to rebellion against a government that was elected by the people. It crosses a red line.”

He added that when Likud was in the opposition “we never incited against the government.” Netanyahu vowed to protect citizens’ rights and to “lead the Israeli government according to the national and democratic values that have guided me my entire life.”

He urged Lapid and the expected opposition “to act in a responsible manner. We have one country, one military and one nation. We must not hurt them.”

Lapid responded with an angry diatribe, laying out all the ways he believes Netanyahu has undermined Israeli democracy.

“Mr. Netanyahu, I won’t take lessons in democracy from you. Not from someone who runs a foreign-funded poison machine that deals in slander and defamation of the lowest kind. Not from one who stood on the steps of the courthouse and incited against the rule of law. Not from the one who currently appointed a person convicted of supporting terror to be minister of internal security and a serial convicted felon to the Minister of the Interior,” Lapid said. (Lapid was referring to the expected incoming minister of national security Itamar Ben Gvir and incoming interior minister Aryeh Deri, respectively.) MORE - <https://www.timesofisrael.com/netanyahu-lapid-inciting-rebellion-among-military-officers-local-authorities/>

Border Police officer stabbed, wounded in West Bank; Palestinian attacker shot dead

A Palestinian man stabbed and wounded a Border Police officer in the northern West Bank town of Hawara on Friday, before being shot dead by Israeli forces, police and medics said.

Border Police said in a statement that a team of officers was operating in the flashpoint Palestinian town when the suspect pulled a knife and managed to stab one of the officers, lightly injuring him.

Other officers then “neutralized” the attacker, the statement said.

Footage posted to social media showed a Border Police officer trying to apprehend the suspect as two other Palestinians were trying to pull him free.

An officer managed to pull the alleged stabber away from them in a headlock, but the suspect then briefly freed himself from his grasp and appeared to try and grab the officer’s automatic weapon.

The officer then allowed the weapon to fall to the ground as he pulled a handgun from a holster and fired four times point-blank, killing the suspect. He then retrieved his automatic weapon and appears to call for backup before the video clip ends.

Border Police said that the officer with stab wounds was subsequently evacuated for medical treatment, as was the officer who subdued the attacker. Both were lightly wounded.

Palestinian teens order Haredi man to kiss their feet, post on TikTok, are arrested

Police arrested two Palestinian teenagers who filmed themselves threatening an ultra-Orthodox man in Jerusalem's Old City and ordering him to bend down on his knees and kiss one of their feet in a video that they later uploaded to TikTok.

The phenomenon of Palestinians filming themselves assaulting or humiliating ultra-Orthodox residents sparked outrage and clashes last year, leading to several arrests. In one particularly viral video, a Palestinian was filmed pouring hot coffee on an Orthodox man, leading to a two-year prison sentence. The latest clip was captioned with the line "look at how he kisses his shoes" with a laughing emoji.

A police complaint was filed shortly after the video was uploaded and the 14 and 16-year-olds were arrested on Thursday and charged with assault and issuing threats.

Extensive Two-Year Study Pokes All Kinds of Holes in N95 Masks - Biden, Fauci Hardest Hit

By Mike Miller | 3:30 PM on December 02, 2022

And there it is. Again.

After the CDC took nearly two years to tell America and presumably the world that cloth masks were virtually worthless for mitigating the spread of COVID-19 and that N95 masks provide "the highest" level of protection, a new peer-reviewed, international randomized controlled trial (RCT) has found no statistically significant real-world evidence that masks stop aerosolized transmission of the virus.

In my not-so-humble opinion — an opinion many of us have shared for nearly two years — masks are largely virtue-signaling symbols worn by liberals, or others frightened into believing that masks are effective in preventing one from contracting the virus. Incidentally, if they did? Why did liberals' hair catch on fire if they were wearing a mask and you weren't? Rhetorical question, of course.

Here's more, via Just the News:

Published in the Annals of Internal Medicine (AIM) this week and led by researchers at Canada's McMaster University, the study found no statistically significant difference in protection between the two kinds of masks in healthcare facilities in Canada, Israel, Pakistan and Egypt.

Funders included the Canadian government and World Health Organization, which unlike the U.S. opposes masking young children and also found "no evidence" face coverings made a difference against influenza in a 2019 study.

Previous RCTs in the COVID era have found mediocre protection from face coverings at best. A Danish study of 6,000 that had trouble getting published — and eventually landed in AIM — found no statistically significant difference between surgical and no-mask wearers.

A much larger study led by Yale University found that "Based on the 95 percent confidence intervals, we do not even know if surgical mask efficacy is more than 0 percent."

As I mockingly suggested in the headline, Joe "Winter of Severe Illness and Death" Biden and Anthony Fauci, hilariously dubbed "the quadruple-vaxed, double-masked oracle of nonsense," by my colleague Jim Thompson, were no doubt hardest hit by the news.

Speaking of Fauci, as noted by JTN, Missouri Attorney General Eric Schmitt recently claimed that the retiring National Institute of Allergy and Infectious Diseases director, "whose flip-flops on masking led to mass public confusion early in the pandemic, couldn't name any studies showing mask effectiveness in his recent deposition in state-led litigation against alleged federal censorship."

Another tidbit from Fauci depo: In Feb '20 he emailed a friend advising her masks were ineffective. Confirmed again on Mar 31. On Apr 3 he's adamant masks should be worn even though he couldn't cite a single study to prove it.

City to pay George Floyd protesters $600,000

A federal court Wednesday approved Minneapolis, Minnesota's agreement to pay 12 protesters a combined $600,000 for injuries sustained during 2020 demonstrations over George Floyd's murder.

The agreement settled a lawsuit brought by American Civil Liberties Union of Minnesota (ACLU-MN) on the protesters' behalf, and bars Minneapolis from arresting or using physical force including chemical agents against people demonstrating legally, according to a Wednesday ACLU-MN press release. The Minnesota U.S. District Court's injunction concluding the lawsuit Wednesday mandates body-camera recordings for Minneapolis officers deployed to protests and limits their use of chemical agents for peaceful protest dispersion.

"Tear gas, foam bullets and pepper spray became weapons for intimidating and hurting protesters, making it dangerous for people to exercise their First Amendment rights," ACLU-MN Legal Director Teresa Nelson said. "We hope this settlement sends a message to law enforcement across Minnesota that this violation of our constitutional rights will not be tolerated."

The $600,000 settlement payment will be divided among the 12 protesters, the press release said. Protesters claimed to have been tear-gassed and shot with rubber bullets and foam, with plaintiffs allegedly suffering bruises and lingering respiratory problems.

A Minneapolis Police Department public information officer sent the Daily Caller News Foundation a Wednesday statement by Minneapolis City Attorney Kristyn Anderson.

"The City Council approved a $600,000 settlement on Oct. 20, and Mayor Frey signed the Council action Oct. 26," the statement read. "The City Attorney's Office executed and filed documents necessary to effectuate the settlement, and an order reflecting portions of that settlement were made public today."

358,000 checks added up to $24 million for Warnock alone

A new report has revealed research into donation “mules,” those unemployed people across American who donated hundreds of thousands of times, adding up to millions of dollars, to Democrats.

The Gateway Pundit is reporting on the research from engineer Chris Gleason, who launched a project to determine who was most likely “to vote for which candidate and how likely were they to support particular candidates and causes.”

“What he and a small group of others determined was that Washington State had a massive network of campaign finance mules. They identified massive numbers of registered voters in Washington State who were making thousands of donations to Democrat party candidates nationwide and progressive PACs. The individual donation amounts were not large. These donations were small and had been intentionally set up to avoid throwing up red flags,” the report explained.

“These ‘Money Mules’ were not wealthy individuals. They were average Americans, living in an average house in an average neighborhood. Or at least that is how it would appear. The investigative group observed massive patterns and red flags in the data. One of the biggest flags was that all of these campaign finance mules in Washington State had been making donations to Raphael Warnock in Georgia.”

In fact, NBC recently confirmed Warnock raised $52.2 million for his re-election between Oct. 20 through Nov. 16, more than doubling the fundraising total of his opponent, Republican Herschel Walker, the report said.

Warnock, the top fundraising federal candidate of the 2022 election cycle by a long-shot, spent $39.2 million over the same period, which almost doubled Walker’s spend too. The incumbent closed the period with $29.7 million banked away.

The report said, “It turns out that millions in donations were sent to candidates like Raphael Warnock from ‘money mules’ around the country. Warnock was the top beneficiary of all 2022 Democrat candidates of this money distribution scheme.”

A key finding in the research was that “these very active donors were all unemployed,” the report said.

The Gateway Pundit explained those masses of unemployed in Washington state donating thousands of times, totaling millions of dollars, to Warnock were not alone.

“In an amazing turn of events, the same exact pattern was discovered in every single state where the same queries were run. There were massive numbers of Democrat donors making donations at a rate that defied all logic and reason. How could so many people be making so many donations all to the same exact organizations and candidates? How could all of these campaign finance mules be donating largely to Raphael Warnock?” the report said.

State after state, donation “mules” have been making regular, almost constant, donations to Democrats, the report confirmed.

“Overall, Raphael Warnock managed to receive over 358,000 donations from unemployed average Americans that totaled more than $24 million.”

The report openly wondered where “unemployed” people are getting millions of dollars to donate – or is someone else “really” making them. <https://www.wnd.com/2022/12/research-uncovers-donation-mules-unemployed-donated-millions-dems/> [HUMMMMMM?
