

Dear All,

Greetings in the name of our Lord and Savior Jesus Christ!

This coming Sunday, March 1, will be the Second Sunday in Lent. We will be celebrating the Lord's Supper on Sunday! If you will be worshiping from home, I invite you to gather together bread, crackers, tortillas, or some other grain-based food along with wine, juice, or some other beverage. When you get to that part of the service, partake with the knowledge that we are all spiritually together in our communion.

We will continue lifting our eyes up to the mountains, where our help comes from. We will meet Moses and his people as they come down from Mount Hor. We will meet Jesus as he talks to Nicodemus about God's love, salvation, and the cross that lay ahead on Mount Calvary. And there will be snakes! Get ready! In preparation for Sunday, I invite you to reflect on how Jesus offers healing from even the worst venoms of this world.

We will continue our practice of hybrid worship. This means that you are welcome to join us in person and that you are welcome to join us from home, whatever works best for you. If you are able to access technology for online worship, we will be live streaming the service via Youtube and Facebook.

For Youtube Live, please go to our channel: https://www.youtube.com/channel/UCPh2zitSFxk2uo9_YWEusCQ/, subscribe to it, and enable notifications. The live video should be up and running just before the service starts. If you watch later, click on our channel and then select "Live" videos. You can also watch afterward on our website at: <https://fpchighland.org/worship>.

For Facebook Live, please go to our page here: <https://www.facebook.com/firstpchighland/> around the start of worship. A recording of the service will remain on our Facebook page if you want to watch later.

As always, I have included worship materials, including the bulletin, readings, hymns, a sermon, and creative activities for disciples of all ages.

I leave you with these words from John:

“And just as Moses lifted up the serpent in the wilderness, so must the Son of Man be lifted up, that whoever believes in him may have eternal life.

For God so loved the world that he gave his only Son, so that everyone who believes in him may not perish but may have eternal life.”

In Christ and with Love,

Rev. Tyler Orem
