

Dear All,

Greetings in the name of our Lord and Savior Jesus Christ!

This coming Sunday, July 6, is the Fifth Sunday of Pentecost! We will continue being swept up by the wind of the Holy Spirit into the beauty of God's image, the IMAGO DEI, and our call to ensure that all of God's children know that they belong. In preparation for Sunday, I invite you to reflect on an aspect of yourself that is in need of healing. Practice praying for healing. Consider how the community around you can be part of healing.

We will be celebrating the Lord's Supper on Sunday! If you will be worshiping from home, I invite you to gather together bread, crackers, tortillas, or some other grain-based food along with wine, juice, or some other beverage. When you get to that part of the service, partake with the knowledge that we are all spiritually together in our communion.

We will continue our practice of hybrid worship. This means that you are welcome to join us in person and that you are welcome to join us from home, whatever works best for you. If you are able to access technology for online worship, we will be live streaming the service via Youtube and Facebook.

For Youtube Live, please go to our channel: https://www.youtube.com/channel/UCPh2zjtSFxk2uo9_YWEusCQ/, subscribe to it, and enable notifications. The live video should be up and running just before the service starts. If you watch later, click on our channel and then select "Live" videos. You can also watch afterward on our website at: <https://fpchighland.org/worship>.

For Facebook Live, please go to our page here: <https://www.facebook.com/firstpchighland/> around the start of worship. A recording of the service will remain on our Facebook page if you want to watch later.

As always, I have included worship materials, including the bulletin, readings, hymns, a sermon, and creative activities for disciples of all ages.

I leave you with these words from Acts:

Jumping up, he stood and began to walk, and he entered the temple with them, walking and leaping and praising God. All the people saw him walking and praising God, and they recognized him as the one who used to sit and ask for alms at the Beautiful Gate of the temple, and they were filled with wonder and astonishment at what had happened to him.

In Christ and with Love,

Rev. Tyler Orem
