

Dear All,

Greetings in the name of our Lord and Savior Jesus Christ!

This coming Sunday, June 28, is the Sixth Sunday of Pentecost! The Holy Spirit will continue to move through FPCH, inspiring Wisdom and transformation. A dear friend of the congregation, Rev. Linda Skaggs, will be leading worship. She has graciously agreed to fill the pulpit this Sunday while we are in Milwaukee for General Assembly. In preparation for Sunday, I invite you to reflect on what your responsibilities are as a follower of Christ, especially when you have significant resources.

The attached sermon is one previously preached. Hopefully it brings new inspiration now!

We will continue our practice of hybrid worship. This means that you are welcome to join us in person and that you are welcome to join us from home, whatever works best for you. If you are able to access technology for online worship, we will be live streaming the service via Youtube and Facebook.

For Youtube Live, please go to our channel: https://www.youtube.com/channel/UCPh2zjtSFxk2uo9_YWEusCQ/, subscribe to it, and enable notifications. The live video should be up and running just before the service starts. If you watch later, click on our channel and then select “Live” videos. You can also watch afterward on our website at: <https://fpchighland.org/worship>.

For Facebook Live, please go to our page here: <https://www.facebook.com/firstpchighland/> around the start of worship. A recording of the service will remain on our Facebook page if you want to watch later.

As always, I have included worship materials, including the bulletin, readings, hymns, a sermon, and creative activities for disciples of all ages.

I leave you with these words from Luke:

From everyone to whom much has been given, much will be required, and from the one to whom much has been entrusted, even more will be demanded.

In Christ and with Love,

Rev. Tyler Orem
