

Dear All,

Greetings in the name of our Lord and Savior Jesus Christ!

This coming Sunday, May 31, is our celebration of Trinity Sunday. On this Sunday we reflect on the mysterious nature of our Triune God, somehow three and somehow one. This three-in-one nature means that the persons of God are somehow in relationship with each other and somehow in unity with each other. In preparation for Sunday, I invite you to consider your own image of our Triune God. How do you understand their relationship? Are there any images from the natural world that inform your way of understanding? Do you have any people in your life who are so close that you feel a sense of oneness with them?

We will continue our practice of hybrid worship. This means that you are welcome to join us in person and that you are welcome to join us from home, whatever works best for you. If you are able to access technology for online worship, we will be live streaming the service via Youtube and Facebook.

For Youtube Live, please go to our channel: https://www.youtube.com/channel/UCPh2zjtSFxk2uo9\_YWEusCQ/, subscribe to it, and enable notifications. The live video should be up and running just before the service starts. If you watch later, click on our channel and then select “Live” videos. You can also watch afterward on our website at: <https://fpchighland.org/worship>.

For Facebook Live, please go to our page here: <https://www.facebook.com/firstpchighland/> around the start of worship. A recording of the service will remain on our Facebook page if you want to watch later.

As always, I have included worship materials, including the bulletin, readings, hymns, a sermon, and creative activities for disciples of all ages.

I leave you with these words from John:

“In the beginning was the Word, and the Word was with God, and the Word was God. He was in the beginning with God. All things came into being through him, and without him not one thing came into being. What has come into being in him was life, and the life was the light of all people.”

In Christ and with Love,

Rev. Tyler Orem
