

Dear All,

Greetings in the name of our Lord and Savior Jesus Christ!

This coming Sunday, June 29, is the Fourth Sunday of Pentecost! We will be continuing to celebrate Pentecost by learning about the Spirit-filled community that formed when the Holy Spirit filled all those gathered in Jerusalem. We will see how the beautiful mystery of the Trinity was reflected in this beautiful community. In preparation for Sunday, I invite you to think about lessons about sharing that you were taught as a child. Do you continue to enact those lessons today? What would it take for you to share even more now?

We will continue our practice of hybrid worship. This means that you are welcome to join us in person and that you are welcome to join us from home, whatever works best for you. If you are able to access technology for online worship, we will be live streaming the service via Youtube and Facebook.

For Youtube Live, please go to our channel: https://www.youtube.com/channel/UCPh2zjtSFxk2uo9_YWEusCQ/, subscribe to it, and enable notifications. The live video should be up and running just before the service starts. If you watch later, click on our channel and then select “Live” videos. You can also watch afterward on our website at: <https://fpchighland.org/worship>.

For Facebook Live, please go to our page here: <https://www.facebook.com/firstpchighland/> around the start of worship. A recording of the service will remain on our Facebook page if you want to watch later.

As always, I have included worship materials, including the bulletin, readings, hymns, a sermon, and creative activities for disciples of all ages.

I leave you with these words from Acts:

“Awe came upon everyone because many wonders and signs were being done through the apostles. All who believed were together and had all things in common; they would sell their possessions and goods and distribute the proceeds to all, as any had need.”

In Christ and with Love,

Rev. Tyler Orem
