Dear All,

Greetings in the name of our Lord and Savior Jesus Christ! This coming Sunday, October 18, I will be taking a much-needed day off for personal Sabbath. Luke Walkup, a student at the nearby Mid-America Seminary will be filling in as pulpit supply. Beginning with this Sunday, we will be moving our in-person worship services inside following a policy of healthy mitigation procedures. This will include physically distanced seating, mask wearing, open windows and doors for ventilation, and regular sanitation. In all likelihood we will continue to worship inside through the rest of the fall and winter.

If you choose to access technology for virtual worship, we will be live streaming the service via Youtube and Facebook. For Youtube Live, please go to our channel:

https://www.youtube.com/channel/UCPh2zjtSFxk2uo9_YWEusCQ/, subscribe to it, and enable notifications. The live video should be up and running just before 10:30 AM CDT. For Facebook Live, please go to our page here: <https://www.facebook.com/firstpchighland/> around 10:30 AM CDT. Live streaming is new for us, so please give us grace if it does not work out. We will also post a recording of the service later in the day on Sunday, which you can access at <https://fpchighland.org/sermons>.

As always, I have attached this week's worship materials, including the bulletin, readings, and activities for young disciples of all ages. I do not yet have a sermon manuscript to include, so be sure to tune in on Sunday to hear what Luke has to say!

You all are regularly in my prayers. Please do let me know if there are any special intentions you would like for me to uplift in prayer or to add to our prayer list.

I leave you with these famous words from John's gospel. "For God so loved the world, that he gave his only Son, that whoever believes in him should not perish but have eternal life."

In Christ,

Rev. Tyler Orem
