Dear All,

Greetings in the name of our Lord and Savior Jesus Christ! This coming Sunday, January 10, we will be celebrating the Baptism of our Lord. As you worship from home, I invite you to get some water and play with it! Run your hands through it. Get some on your head. Water your plants. Remember your baptisms!

If you have Facebook, I invite you to check out our premiere of the worship service at 10:30 AM on Sunday at <https://www.facebook.com/firstpchighland/>. Alternatively, a recorded service will also be accessible on our website at <https://fpchighland.org/sermons>.

This Sunday we will be installing our new officers after the service at 11:45 AM on Zoom. Please join us for this important event in the life of our congregation! If you have computer or smart phone access to Zoom, use the following link:

As always, I have attached this week's worship materials, including the bulletin, readings, sermon, hymns, and creative worship materials for all ages.

This week I leave you with these words from the gospel of Mark:

“Now John was clothed with camel’s hair, with a leather belt around his waist, and he ate locusts and wild honey. He proclaimed, ‘The one who is more powerful than I is coming after me; I am not worthy to stoop down and untie the thong of his sandals. I have baptized you with water; but he will baptize you with the Holy Spirit.’ In those days Jesus came from Nazareth of Galilee and was baptized by John in the Jordan. And just as he was coming up out of the water, he saw the heavens torn apart and the Spirit descending like a dove on him. And a voice came from heaven, ‘You are my Son, the Beloved; with you I am well pleased.’”

In Christ and With Love,

Rev. Tyler Orem
