

Dear All,

Greetings in the name of our Lord and Savior Jesus Christ!

Jesus Christ is risen! He is risen indeed! Hallelujah! Hallelujah!

This coming Sunday, April 19th, is the Third Sunday of Easter! We have the blessing of continuing to meet our resurrected Lord in different contexts! This Sunday, we will meet him on the road and then at table with two disciples we know very little about. Jesus saw fit for them to see him, and so we know that Jesus wants all of us to see him! In preparation for Sunday, I invite you to use your sense of sight to witness new life in the world around you. If physical vision is a challenge, what do you see in your mind's eye?

We will continue our practice of hybrid worship. This means that you are welcome to join us in person and that you are welcome to join us from home, whatever works best for you. If you are able to access technology for online worship, we will be live streaming the service via Youtube and Facebook.

For Youtube Live, please go to our channel: https://www.youtube.com/channel/UCPh2zjtSFxk2uo9_YWEusCQ/, subscribe to it, and enable notifications. The live video should be up and running just before the service starts. If you watch later, click on our channel and then select “Live” videos. You can also watch afterward on our website at: <https://fpchighland.org/worship>.

For Facebook Live, please go to our page here: <https://www.facebook.com/firstpchighland/> around the start of worship. A recording of the service will remain on our Facebook page if you want to watch later.

As always, I have included worship materials, including the bulletin, readings, hymns, a sermon, and creative activities for disciples of all ages.

In anticipation of the Resurrection, I leave you with these words from Luke:

As they came near the village to which they were going, he walked ahead as if he were going on. But they urged him strongly, saying, “Stay with us, because it is almost evening and the day is now nearly over.” So he went in to stay with them. When he was at the table with them, he took bread, blessed and broke it, and gave it to them. Then their eyes were opened, and they recognized him.

In Christ and with Love,

Rev. Tyler Orem
