

Dear All,

Greetings in the name of our Lord and Savior Jesus Christ!

This coming Sunday, August 17, is the Eleventh Sunday of Pentecost! If weather permits, we will be worshiping outside in the garden! Bring a comfortable chair and wear whatever clothes work for the temperature. We will have extra chairs there if you need one. If weather does not permit, we will be worshiping in our beautiful sanctuary.

As we continue our beautiful Pentecostal journey, we will meet Saul/Paul right after his transformation. We will witness what happens when he tries to join the rest of the disciples. We will see minds changed and hearts transformed through the power of reconciliation.

We will continue our practice of hybrid worship. This means that you are welcome to join us in person and that you are welcome to join us from home, whatever works best for you. If you are able to access technology for online worship, we will be live streaming the service via Youtube and Facebook.

For Youtube Live, please go to our channel: https://www.youtube.com/channel/UCPh2zjtSFxk2uo9_YWEusCQ/, subscribe to it, and enable notifications. The live video should be up and running just before the service starts. If you watch later, click on our channel and then select “Live” videos. You can also watch afterward on our website at: <https://fpchighland.org/worship>.

For Facebook Live, please go to our page here: <https://www.facebook.com/firstpchighland/> around the start of worship. A recording of the service will remain on our Facebook page if you want to watch later.

As always, I have included worship materials, including the bulletin, readings, hymns, a sermon, and creative activities for disciples of all ages.

I leave you with these words from 1 Thessalonians:

We always give thanks to God for all of you and mention you in our prayers, constantly remembering before our God and Father your work of faith and labor of love and steadfastness of hope in our Lord Jesus Christ.

In Christ and with Love,

Rev. Tyler Orem
