Resolution Summary

We have completed verification of the investigation or changes that you requested regarding your TransUnion Personal Credit Report. Please review these results carefully.

The results are listed below. If an item you disputed is not in the list of results below, it was either not appearing in your credit file or it already reflected the requested status at the time of our investigation. If an item says, "Deleted" we have removed it from your credit report and taken steps so it does not reappear. If an item says, "Verified, no change" it means the company that reports the information to us has certified it is reported accurately. If an item says "New Information Below" you should look at the item carefully to see whether you believe it is now accurate. Sometimes the new information reflects only a change to a balance or date, because the company that reports that item to us has certified that the rest of the information is accurate.

If our investigation has not resolved your dispute, you have several options:

You may submit another request for investigation by clicking "NEW INVESTIGATION" above and indicating that you are filing a repeat dispute. By using this channel, you will be prompted to add additional information you feel is relevant to your dispute and you may upload supporting documentation.

You may print and complete a Request for Investigation form and return it, along with supporting documentation.

You may add a 100-word statement to your report. If you provide a consumer statement that contains medical information related to service providers or medical procedures, then you expressly consent to TransUnion including this information in every credit report we issue about you.

You may contact the company that reports the information to us and dispute it directly with them. If you wish to obtain documentation or written verification concerning your accounts, please contact your creditors directly.

You may file a complaint about TransUnion, or the company reporting the item, with the Consumer Financial Protection Bureau or your State Attorney General's office.

Dear [REDACTED]

Enclosed is a copy of your Equifax credit file. Please review it for any unauthorized accounts or inquiries. If unauthorized information is reporting on your Equifax credit file, you may start an investigation immediately on-line at www.investigate.equifax.com. Using the Internet to initiate an on-line investigation request will expedite the resolution of your concerns. You may also start an investigation by completing and returning the enclosed Research Request Form or by calling the toll free telephone number on the credit file. Please advise us of any documents that may help us in the reinvestigation, such as an identity theft report or letters from credit grantors.

Please note, when you provide documents, including a letter, to Equifax as part of your dispute, the documents may be submitted to one or more companies whose information are the subject of your dispute.

You should contact the credit grantors that are reporting information you believe is fraudulent. Ask them to explain their fraud investigation process, what steps should be taken and how long the process normally takes. Additionally request that they send you a letter or documentation stating the results of the investigation. Upon receipt, forward a copy of that letter to us.

If your ID information, such as driver's license or social security card, was lost or stolen, contact the appropriate issuing agency.
