

Testimonial for Rosemary Altea

What does Rosemary mean to me?

It's a special day when I hear the words "Is anyone out there"?

I am one of many that wait eagerly to hear Rosemary's voice. I hear the words "Am I live? I think I am," and then the words "good morning everyone." And so it begins. What will she say today? Will she have a story to share? Or will she give a message full of wisdom. Sometimes it's serious and deep. Always it's meaningful. The way she weaves the details in her storytelling is magnificent. Her love and caring for all is amazing. What an absolute treat and gift she brings us in her teachings. I love her joy in the kitchen and laughter during "Off the cuff," I love her strength, I love that she sometimes says no not right now but keep trying to people in such a loving way. She is so real and so very well-intentioned.
