Chrismon Service:

Wednesday, December 3, 2026 @ 6 pm – A service of Scripture and Hymns celebrating the life of Christ, his teachings, life, death, and resurrection, as described in Christian scripture. Chrismons, meaning “Christ monograms,” traditionally are white and gold designs made from Christian symbols that signify Christ, his story and of the Holy Trinity. The white color in Chrismons is the liturgical color of Christmas and Easter that signifies joy and holiness. The gold represents the glory, majesty and kingship of Jesus. Anyone wishing to help with the reading of Scripture, please contact Pastor Brandin or Marcia Albrecht.
