Outreach Happenings!

Blessing Box:

The Blessing Box is in need of anything you could provide. Suggestions are: cereal, water, pasta, sauce, canned chicken/ham/tuna/beef, corned beef, sausage, beans, cured beef sticks, pepperoni, bacon, peanut butter (and other nut butters), cheese spreads, parmesan cheese, dressings - mayonnaise, mustard, oils, Jam/Jelly, Seasonings (salt, pepper, garlic, Italian (small packets can be purchased at Tops), pickles, pepperoncini, canned vegetables. Your donations are so appreciated.

Operation Christmas Child:

We are gearing up for Samaritan's Purse – Operation Christmas Child for National Collection November. Take advantage of school supply sales for inclusion in the shoeboxes. Walmart has boxes of 24 crayons for only $.50 a box! We are hoping to pack 100 shoeboxes [at least 60 of them should have a box of crayons for children ages 2-9 years old]. Again this year, no candy, toothpaste, liquids, or war-related items are allowed. More info and promotional fliers will be forthcoming.

We have had 2 organizational meetings thus far this Fall. Our first meeting was to count the items we have for the shoeboxes. The second meeting was to pack beads for necklaces and bracelets. At our next meeting, we will count the items collected. Note the big collection container in the Narthex. Please leave your donation(s) here. Each week the items will be collected and counted. Thank you for your donations. A suggestion list will be coming soon.

If you have any ideas for fundraising for the shipping and handling costs, and costs of the classroom discipleship booklet, THE GREATEST JOURNEY, please contact Sue Morton or Rose Ann Myers.

Red Bird Mission: We are sponsoring a linen collection of new towels/washcloths, sheets and blankets (twin and double) for those living in rural Kentucky. More information will be in forthcoming bulletins but given the current sales we are sharing this now.
