

Twelfth Sunday after Pentecost (Proper 13)

Preludes

Welcome

Call to Worship:

How long will we waver between the voices that compete for our hearts?

The Lord is God; we will follow Him.

When the world promises security, power, and control—

We will place our trust in the Lord.

The God who answered Elijah with fire has revealed His heart to us in Jesus Christ.

We come to worship the God of power, grace, and love.

Come, let us turn our hearts fully toward God.

The Lord—He is God! Let us worship Him!

Opening Prayer:

Faithful God, You call us away from divided hearts and back into Your presence. Quiet the voices that compete for our attention and help us place our trust fully in You. As we worship, reveal Your power, Your grace, and Your love through Jesus Christ. Turn our hearts back to You again. Amen.
