Outreach Happenings!

Blessing Box: How can it be August already? Summer is in full-swing along with the daily door opening and closing of the Blessing Box. This month, in addition to cereal, water, and pasta/sauce, we ask you to donate items recognizing National Sandwich Month (who knew?). Shelf-stable ideas include:

Proteins

Canned chicken, ham, tuna, beef, corned beef, sausage, beans
Cured beef sticks, pepperoni, bacon
Peanut butter (and other nut butters)

Condiments, Spreads and Fillings

Cheese spreads, parmesan cheese
Dressings - mayonnaise, mustard, oils
Jam/Jelly
Seasonings (salt, pepper, garlic, Italian (small packets can be purchased at Tops))

Vegetables and Crunch

Pickles, pepperoncini, canned vegetables

Operation Christmas Child: We will be collecting filled shoeboxes; now is the time to purchase school supplies to place in your boxes. Composition notebooks fit nicely and are malleable enough to not compromise the integrity of the paper. Colored pencils, crayons, scissors, pencil sharpeners - these are gifts that children throughout the world love to receive.

Red Bird Mission: We are sponsoring a linen collection of new towels/washcloths, sheets and blankets (twin and double) for those living in rural Kentucky. More information will be in forthcoming bulletins but given the current sales we are sharing this now.

Thank you: To close, we continue to be humbled by the stories of those who use the Blessing Box to help them feed loved ones, and we are grateful for the love you share with our neighbors, near and far. On behalf of Outreach, Kathy and Carol
