

NYS Prince Hall Grand Lodge, Prince Hall Foundation & Eureka Lodge #36 present Community Workshops

June 5, 2026
57 St. Paul Street, Rochester, NY 14604

Lunch Sessions (12:15 – 1:15)

Leadership – Session 1

Bro. Michael Wiggins
Owner: Progressive Traditions
Leadership and Coaching

Topic: The Impossible Day: Juggling Life and Leadership
A real-world look at how leaders overload themselves in the name of responsibility and the consequences that follow. This session challenges leaders to rethink priorities, make disciplined decisions under pressure, and lead with clarity instead of chaos.

Room 341

Business Education

Bro. Dr. Lomax Campbell
Owner: Third Eye Network

Topic: “Introducing the Visionary Blueprint Canvas” presents a structured, evidence-based framework designed to help entrepreneurs and organizations move from concept to execution with clarity, alignment, and strategic focus. The session is led by Dr. Lomax R. Campbell, a serial entrepreneur, investor, and recognized thought leader in economic development.

Room 314

Financial Literacy – Retirement

Bro. Louis Benton
Financial Advisor at Principal
Securities, Inc.

Discover how to navigate the financial and lifestyle aspects of retirement with confidence in this engaging session. Learn practical strategies for managing your savings, exploring new passions, and creating a fulfilling post-career life. Whether you're a few years away or already retired, this workshop will help you design a future you're excited to live.

Room 313

Evening Sessions (5:30 – 6:30)

Leadership - Session 2

Bro. Michael Wiggins
Owner: Progressive Traditions
Leadership and Coaching

Topic: Fab 5: The Circle of Influence
Most leaders have a team, but very few have a circle that sharpens their thinking and strengthens their decisions. This session shows how to intentionally build a trusted inner circle that challenges blind spots, reinforces standards, and elevates leadership performance.

Room 341

Civic Engagement Committee

Bro. Kevin Parker
NYS Senator – Minority Whip

The Chairman of the Civic Engagement Committee, Brother & NYS State Senator Kevin Parker unveils a bold vision rooted in Prince Hall Masonry's historic commitment to civil and human rights. Attendees will explore partnership pathways, community impact strategies, and practical ways community activists and Masonic leaders can engage and advance this vital work.

Room 314

Aging in Place

Willie A. Price, CAPS
Executive Director: A Better YOU
Lifestyle, Inc.

The only CAPS-certified Rehabilitation Specialist in NYS trained on the unique needs of senior home modifications. The workshop will discuss providing a safe, secure home environment and easy-to-use appliance ideas, which enable seniors to live comfortably and longer in their homes as they age.

Room 313

Pre-Register at <https://eurekalodge36.org/grand-session>

All are welcome: Masons, Guests, the Rochester Community (Security screening at entrance)

New York State - M.W. Grandmaster Darren M. Morton Ed. D.

Eureka Lodge #36 - Worshipful Master Tracy Williams

