GOSPEL

Mark 12:28b-34

One of the scribes came to Jesus and asked him, "Which is the first of all the commandments?"

Jesus replied, "The first is this:

Hear, O Israel!

The Lord our God is Lord alone!

You shall love the Lord your God with all your heart,

with all your soul,

with all your mind,

and with all your strength.

The second is this:

You shall love your neighbor as yourself.

There is no other commandment greater than these."

The scribe said to him, "Well said, teacher.

You are right in saying,

'He is One and there is no other than he.'

And 'to love him with all your heart,

with all your understanding,

with all your strength,

and to love your neighbor as yourself

is worth more than all burnt offerings and sacrifices."

And when Jesus saw that he answered with understanding,

he said to him,

"You are not far from the kingdom of God."

And no one dared to ask him any more questions.

This past week many of our treasured statues were given a little extra care. $2500 worth of repair work and touch up were done on them. If you would like to donate to cover some of this cost please send your donation in with the word Statue repair in the memo line. Any amount would be greatly appreciated.

Our local Catholic Daughters will have a bake sale on November 13 and 14. If you would like to bake something for this bake sale, donate money or volunteer to help sell contact Jennifer Pacheco 209-898-4870
