Things To Do in Seaside, Oregon...

Walk the Prom

Seaside's 1.5-mile oceanfront Promenade and its famous Turnaround at the beach are among Oregon's most famous landmarks. Dating from 1921, the Prom is the perfect place for a casual walk or bicycle ride. See panoramic views of the Pacific Ocean, beachgrass-covered dunes, and the rainforest-covered Tillamook Head as you stroll.

Ride the Carousel

Just two blocks from the beach, the Seaside Carousel features 24 full-sized carousel animals. Ride a traditional pony or select the huge rabbit, the pink ostrich, the reindeer, a cat with a fish, or a seahorse! Read the fascinating history of the Carousel and see some great historical photos.

Visit Tillamook Rock Lighthouse

Also known in local lore as Terrible Tilly, the lighthouse sits atop a rock formation a mile west of Tillamook Head and is visible from much of Seaside's beachfront and Prom. Rumored to be haunted, Tilly was first lit in 1881 and shone for 77 years. For more on the lighthouse's history, visit the Seaside Historical Society Museum and Butterfield Cottage.

Explore History

Seaside's Turnaround is designed as the official end of the Lewis and Clark Trail, and the monument at the center of the Turnaround commemorates their historic, 18 month, 4,000 journey from Saint Louis to the Oregon Coast. The Salt Works, on Lewis and Clark Way between Beach Drive and the Prom, is where the explorers' salt-making camp was believed to be. For more on the expedition, visit the Seaside Museum or make a day trip to the Fort Clatsop Interpretive Center, the site of the expedition's 1806 winter camp.

Visit the Seaside Aquarium

The Seaside Aquarium features living regional marine life, a hands-on discovery center, and a 35-foot gray whale skeleton, all within a short walk from the Lewis & Clark monument.

Seaside's Painted Rock Beach

Once a secret spot where residents would deposit colorfully painted rocks, the area has grown to become a well-known community art installation. Feel free to bring your own painted rocks to add to the project.

Paddle for Pleasure

Seaside's waterways provide scenic avenues for kayaks, canoes and paddle boats. Rent a boat, or launch your own at the Necanicum River dock near the convention center for a memorable river experience. Guided trips are also available.

Enjoy the Food

Sample Pacific seafood, find great clam chowder, or slice into a juicy grilled steak. Enjoy locally smoked salmon, sweet desserts that use Oregon berries, and much more great food!
