

Let's Elevate

Greetings!

Let's Elevate, Inc., a 501(c)(3) non-profit corporation in Richardson, TX, thanks you for your interest in our three Ralph Bland Education Funds: The Ralph Bland Book Scholarship, The Ralph Bland Tuition Assistance Scholarship and The Ralph Bland Academic Scholarship. We are excited about the continued opportunity touch the lives of youth and adults in our community by offering various scholarships and educational awards.

Let's Elevate, Inc. is committed to empowering youth and adults through scholarships and educational awards. Our vision is a North Texas community where individuals pursue their God-given aspirations, excel in their chosen fields, and reinvest their knowledge and success into future generations.

The Ralph Bland Education Funds were first established by Marcea and Ed Lloyd over 20 years ago, in 2004, in memory of Mr. Ralph Bland to assist youth and adults who have demonstrated an ability to motivate and empower others through service within their school or community. Many others also have donated to The Ralph Bland Education Funds since inception. Mr. Bland was a World War II veteran and successful entrepreneur, owning and operating several small businesses. He instilled his love of learning and entrepreneurial spirit in all who knew him. His family often joked that he probably stashed enough money to educate a small country. Although higher education eluded him, he sent his daughters to the colleges of their choices without any debt and has made attending college possible for many others.

For questions, please contact scholarships@letselevatedallas.org. Thank you again for your interest, and may God bless you in your educational pursuits.

Sincerely,

LEI Board of Directors
