LEAD WARNING STATEMENT

Every Purchaser of any interest in residential real property on which a residential dwelling was built prior to 1978 is notified that such property may present exposure to lead from lead-based paint that may place young children at risk of developing lead poisoning in young children which may produce permanent neurological damage, including learning disabilities, reduced intelligence quotient, behavioral problems and impaired memory.

Lead poisoning also poses a particular risk to pregnant women. The Seller of any interest in residential real property is required to provide the Buyer with any information on lead-based paint hazards from risk assessments or inspections in the Seller’s possession and notify the Buyer of any known lead-based paint hazards. A risk assessment or inspection for possible lead-based hazards is recommended prior to purchase.

PROPERTY CONDITION DISCLOSURE

Every Purchaser of residential real estate property is entitled by law to receive from the Seller a signed Property Condition Disclosure Statement prior to the signing of a binding Contract of Sale. You are encouraged to contact your attorney to be better apprised of your rights and obligations under Real Property Law § 462(2).
