

Business/Organization Gameshows

Our three most popular gameshows for corporate events

Let's Do Trivia!

Let's Do Trivia! is designed from the ground up to be a fun and memorable event while serving the dual purpose of being an eye opening team building exercise. Our trivia is designed for the broad demographic of 25 to 70 year-old people with a focus on 35 to 65 year-olds. We can also customize any gameshow to match your audience. Our Let's Do Trivia! categories are diverse and will include our staples of Geography, History, Music, Movies, TV, and Sports as well as an additional 6-10 categories. There are typically no more than 2 questions in any single specific category to keep things fair for all. We ask 20 questions while giving ample time for teams to work together to answer each question and learn to work together to the benefit of the entire team.

Let's Do Survey Sez...

Let's Do Survey Sez... is universal in its appeal. If a trivia quiz may seem too intimidating to some of your staff, our live version of TV's feuding families can remove the pressure!

We take this TV staple to a new level of fun because the people being surveyed are in the room! Matching the responses of the most teams results in the most points per question and there are no wrong answers. This laugh-out-loud event is perfect as an effective team building exercise.

Play That Funky Bingo

Play That Funky Bingo is our leveled-up version of music bingo that has become so popular in bars and restaurants. To create our music bingo, we roundtabled our most experienced Hosts to plan how we would bring it to a higher level. Music is universally amazing. Music has the power to evoke memories.

Our Play That Funky Bingo includes the songs we all know by heart peppered with some forgotten gems that can surprise you. Game play is just like bingo as players attempt to get 5-in-a-row and shout FUNKY BINGO! This is not music trivia. We do that, too, but not here. Play That Funky Bingo is a game of random chance that becomes a memorable part of any event.

After a full day of work...
