Third member of Chester drugs gang jailed

A third member of a Chester drugs gang that was operating in Chester has now been jailed.

Gary Roebuck, 33, of Alan Street, Northwich, appeared at Chester Crown Court on Friday 15 November where he was sentenced to two years in prison. The 33-year-old had previously pleaded guilty of two counts of Conspiracy to supply the supply of Class A drugs.

His sentencing follows the sentencing of Connor Robins and Michael Curtis who both appeared at Chester Crown Court on Wednesday 9 October. Robins, 28, of Clover Lane, Chester, was jailed for five years and Curtis, 47, also of Clover Lane, Chester, was sentenced to three years in prison. Both men had previously been found guilty of two counts of conspiracy to supply Class A drugs.

The court heard how in June 2023 officers from Chester Proactive Policing Team launched operation Starship in response to intelligence that a drugs line was being operated in the Lache area of Chester. The number was being used to send flare messages on a daily basis, offering to supply heroin and crack cocaine.

Connor Robins

Michael Curtis

During their enquiries officers established that the phone line was being controlled by Robins. In order to minimise his risk of being detected Robins recruited two other men to work for him - Gary Roebuck and Michael Curtis. Roebuck was given the task of looking after the phone and taking orders on behalf of Robins, while the Curtis acted as a chauffeur, helping him to collect the drugs from Liverpool and deliver them to users across Chester. After gathering a catalogue of evidence against the men all three were arrested and charged with drugs offences.

Following the sentencing, DC Richard Connolley, of Chester Proactive Policing Team, said: "I welcome the sentences handed to trio and I hope they act as a warning to others involved in the supply of illegal drugs. Robins thought that by taking a hands-off approach he would be able to avoid detection, and simply pass the blame onto Curtis and Roebuck, while keeping all of the profits. However, he clearly underestimated the dedication and commitment of the team here at Chester to ensure that all those involved in the supply of illegal drugs are held accountable for their actions."

DS Roy Wellings added: "While Robins, Curtis and Roebuck are now behind bars, our fight against illegal drugs remains ongoing and information from the public is vital. I'd urge anyone with any information in relation to drug-related activity in their community to get in touch."

Man jailed for more than 12 years for rape and sexual assault

A man has been sentenced to more than 12 years in prison for multiple sexual offences against two women.

Robert Houghton, of Moss Lane, Macclesfield, appeared at Chester Crown Court on Tuesday 5 November where he was jailed for 12 years and six months. The 29-year-old was found guilty of multiple sexual offences, which included rape, attempted rape, sexual assault and causing a female to engage in sexual activity without consent.

In January 2023, a woman reported that between 2020 and 2022, Houghton had raped and attempted to rape her. He would be sexually aggressive towards her and would even force items into her mouth, so she struggled to breathe. The offences occurred in the Macclesfield area of Cheshire. Houghton was arrested in relation to the offences but denied the allegations put to him. He was released on bail pending further enquiries and ultimately charged.

In February 2024, another woman reported that she had been sexually assaulted by Houghton in Congleton. During the incident, which occurred in 2022, Houghton had touched her without her permission and despite her asking him to stop, he then forced her to touch him. Houghton was also arrested and charged with these offences. On top of his custodial sentence, he is subject to restraining orders in respect to both victims.

Following his sentencing, DC Doug Whitfield said: "I would like to commend the victims in this case for speaking to police about what happened to them. While they will never be able to forget what they have been through, I hope the lengthy sentence handed down to Houghton will give them some sense of closure. Houghton is clearly a sexual predator and is now in custody where he cannot subject further women to this abhorrent behaviour. He showed absolutely no regard for his victims; he knew exactly what he was doing and ignored his victims' pleas for him to stop."

"I'd like to take the opportunity to encourage anyone who may have also been a victim of sexual assault to please get in touch. We will do all we can to tackle any incident of this nature."

Nantwich anti-social behaviour hotspot property closed down by police

Police in Nantwich have secured a closure order following reports of drug abuse, disorder and crime at a property in the town.

The property on Davenport Avenue in Nantwich has been shut down by officers following the securing of a closure order under the Anti-Social Behaviour, Crime and Policing Act 2014 from Crewe Magistrates' Court on 14 November. The order, which came into effect from today (14 November) will run for three months, and is a direct result of officers responding to the concerns of residents regarding the behaviour at the property including drug use/dealing, antisocial behaviour, public order offences, and criminal activity.

Residents in the local area have provided sufficient evidence of the issues coming from the address and are desperate for the easement that a closure order will bring to the local community. It was an example of great communication between officers and the local community that led to securing the three-month order.

The occupant has since been ordered to leave the property and find alternative accommodation, with all windows and doors being secured for a period of three months. Anyone who enters the address during that time will be committing a criminal offence and could be arrested.

PC Thomas Jennings said: "We are dedicated to keeping this neighbourhood and its residents safe, so securing this closure with their help is fantastic news and I hope it encourages others to work with us to make their communities safer for everyone. I want to urge anyone with concerns about ASB or other criminality in their community to please contact local officers and we will do everything we can to address these issues and achieve justice."

Anyone with concerns about anti-social or suspicious behaviour in their area is asked to report it to Cheshire Police via the www.cheshire.police.uk/tell-us or call 101.

Tarporley Police have launched an initiative to provide Key Stage 2 students at Tarporley Primary School with free lights for their bikes.

"This would not have been possible without the help of the great team at Halford's Northwich and the generous donation made by Councillor Hardy at Cheshire West and Chester Council. Two county lines drug dealers sentenced following investigation by Warrington officers

Two members of a Merseyside OCG who took over the address of a vulnerable man have now been sentenced thanks to work by detectives from Warrington Proactive CID.

Jack Parkinson appeared at Liverpool Crown Court on Tuesday 24 September where he was jailed for 37 months. Luke Derby appeared at the same court on Friday 8 November where he was sentenced to two years in prison, suspended for two years. Parkinson, 18, of Garway, Liverpool, while Derby, 19, of Radbrook Close, Halewood, had both previously pleaded guilty to two counts of possession with intent to supply class A drugs (crack cocaine and heroin).

During the hearing, the court was told how on Wednesday 10 January officers received a call from a concerned member of the public who reported concerns for the safety of a vulnerable man at an address in the Orford area of Warrington.

Officers attended the address and both Parkinson and Derby were arrested at the property. The vulnerable man was also located safe and well. A number of mobile phones were seized from the pair, along with a quantity of cash. A golf ball size package, which was thrown from a rear window, was also recovered from the scene. The package was later found to contain individual wraps of crack cocaine and heroin.

During questioning, both Parkinson and Derby refused to answer any questions put to them by officers, they also refused to reveal the PIN numbers for the mobile phones. Despite their silence, officers were able to gather a catalogue of evidence that proved the pair were both members of a Merseyside organised crime gang (OCG) who had been dealing drugs in the Warrington area. The pair had exploited the vulnerable occupant of the address, in order to use his home as a base to deal drugs from – often called Cuckooing.

Following the sentencing, PC Simon Gibson, of Warrington Proactive CID said: "I welcome the sentences handed to Parkinson and Derby, who are both callous criminals who exploited a vulnerable man in order to profit from drug dealing. Illegal drugs can have a devastating impact on not only drug users, but the community around them. Here in Warrington, we are doing all we can to stop drug activity on our streets to make the town a safer place to live and visit while also making it extremely difficult for these gangs to operate.

“However, this is not an issue that we can tackle alone, and I want to take this opportunity to urge residents to keep spotting the signs of vulnerability. Keep an eye out if they feel something isn’t right and to report it to us on 101 or Crimestoppers anonymously on 0800 555 111.
