BEES INDUSTRIES – CONSTRUCTION PRODUCT SLIDING SCALE AGREEMENT

*The obligation of Bees Industries is to produce shop drawings, submittals, and other related preconstruction documents upon receipt of a letter of intent, or contract issued to the Client, from the Customer, by efforts of the Consultant. As well as attending one pre-construction meeting on behalf of the Client, by request of the Customer or Client.

*Bees Industries Partners will not be charged additional fees for Construction Management Services, including what is stated in the "Construction Product Sliding Scale Agreement", until the full price of the "Partnership Agreement" has been recuperated by the Client, through the efforts of the Consultant.

*All Bees Industries Partners receive 10% of all pricing stated in the "Construction Product Sliding Scale Agreement", as well as any, and all services available from Bees Industries and its affiliated LLC's

The Client hereby agrees to pay the Consultant for product sales and construction management services on, or before the 1st (first) _____, or the 15th (fifteenth) _____ day of each month throughout the course of any, and all projects managed for the Client, by the Consultant. The monthly cost of services will be equal to the total cost of services rendered, as well as commissions for signed letters of intent, or contracts during the previous month. In the event a project increases in price, by way of change order, and/or additional scope of work, the Consultant shall be compensated by the Client using the same sliding scale pricing as stated previously in the "Construction Product Sliding Scale Agreement". In the event the Consultant underestimates or mismanages a project resulting in a loss of revenue (not profit) for the Client, the Client shall be equally compensated for the loss of revenue by the Consultant. The Consultant, however, is in no way responsible for loss of revenue due to the negligence of the Client, their employees, or contractors. Nor shall the Consultant be held responsible for loss of revenue due to the negligence of other contractors on the job site, natural disaster, or any other variable beyond the control of the Consultant.
