Call to Worship Psalm 121 and 2 Timothy 4
We lift up our eyes to the hills — from where will our help come?
Our help comes not from the hills, but from the Lord who made heaven and earth.
I solemnly urge you: proclaim the message; be persistent whether the time is favorable or unfavorable;
The Lord will keep your going out and your coming in from this time on and forevermore.
With endurance, expectation, and joy, let us worship the living God!

Hymn of Welcome #403 Christ is Made the Sure Foundation

Opening Prayer (Unison)
Holy God, we turn to you this morning, aware of the gift you give us in scripture. You offer us your truth in story, in song, and in hard teachings. Help us recognize the goodness of what’s offered. Encourage us to seek what you offer. Challenge us to discipline ourselves to learn. Inspire us to celebrate the love which expands in us as we draw closer to you and to your ways. Amen.

Call to Confession

Prayer of Confession (Unison)
God of the covenant, you promise to write your law in our hearts, that we might be faithful people who know you and your will for us. Still, we stray from your ways, we fail to tell the truth, we mirror the world around us more than the good news of the gospel, and we fail to acknowledge that you are our God. Forgive us, and by your Spirit renew us. Engrave your covenant upon us once more. Grant us courage and faith that we might begin again to live what it is we say we believe.

Assurance of Pardon Jeremiah 31:34
No longer shall they teach one another or say to each other, “Know the Lord,” for they shall all know me, from the least of them to the greatest, says the Lord, for I will forgive their iniquity and remember their sin no more.
Hear and believe this good news! In Jesus Christ, we are forgiven!

Gloria Patri #579 Glory Be to the Father

Passing the Peace and Greetings

Prayer for Illumination (Unison) 2 Timothy 4:3
Amid a world where sound teaching is hard to find, our ears are easily tickled by words that suit our own desires. Open us to hear your word, O Lord, that we might know you and your will for us today.

Scripture 2 Timothy 3:4--4:5

Sermon Inspired Rev. Tony DeLucia

Hymn of Response #495 Jesus Loves Even Me

Affirmation of Faith The Confession of 1967, Inclusive Language edition
The reconciling work of Jesus was the supreme crisis in the life of humankind. His cross and resurrection become personal crisis and present hope for women and men when the gospel is proclaimed and believed. In this experience, the Spirit brings God’s forgiveness to all, moves people to respond in faith, repentance, and obedience, and initiates the new life in Christ. The new life takes shape in a community in which people know that God loves and accepts them in spite of what they are. They therefore accept themselves and love others, knowing that no one has any ground on which to stand, except God’s grace.

The new life does not release people from conflict with unbelief, pride, lust, and fear. They still have to struggle with disheartening difficulties and problems. Nevertheless, as they mature in love and faithfulness in their life with Christ, they live in freedom and good cheer, bearing witness on good days and evil days, confident that the new life is pleasing to God and helpful to others.
