

RED

5oz Glass - $12⁰⁰ Bottle - $48⁰⁰

Brakeman's Select - A mysterious stranger of unknown age or parentage. Easygoing and gentle with just enough dark fruit to make for a pleasant longlasting friendship.

'18 Three Sister Gamay - Violets and rose petals... ripe cherry and red plum. A romance novel written with grapes.

'16 Hugging Tree Moonchild Merlot - dark stone fruits, peppery and some toasty warmth. Curl up, take your time and breathe maybe you'll find a song in this bottle.

Bottle - $65⁰⁰

'18 Black Market Syrah - Cherry, vanilla, cinnamon... and was that black olive? Classic Northern Rhone style - elegant in the mouth with a long peppery ending. Dig into the earthiness to find all the savoury notes.

'15 Great Northern Vineyards Zinfandel - Big Bold and DARK... Hello Zinfreindel!

'17 Hayman "John's Block" Pinot Noir - a limited single vineyard brew by Kettle Valley, full of red fruits, hints of vanilla and oak and just enough spice - it's a Pinot made with love.

'05 Old Main Red - the franc & the sauv, some merlot - a little dash of petit verdot & malbec to round it out - the blend we all love. Born a casanova. Now older, wiser and more confident - be prepared to swoon.

'18 Orofino Passion Pit Cab - Can BC make a solid straight cab? Hell's yes... luscious, spicy, juicy, sexy... Chocolate, vanilla, black fruit, red fruit, tobacco... There's a reason passion is in the name.

'15 Pentage GSM - A classic blend done with skill. Bright, fruit forward, long and smooth spicy. Sometimes folks just get stuff right.

WHITE

5oz Glass - $10⁵⁰ Bottle - $42⁰⁰

'18 Secret Society White - exotically aromatic, crispy & tropical. We'd tell ya what's in it but the truth is in the drinking.

'18 Kettle Valley Chardonnay - tree fruits, baked up and lightly buttered with some lingering hint of the oak barrel. Crisp and creamy, can you say happy mouth?

'19 Winemakers Cut Sauv Blanc - Gently aromatic, soft & supple fruit and grass. Honey toast on a sunny springtime morning.

Bottle - $54⁰⁰

'14 Pentage Rhone White - Layered up in creamy textures of stone fruit and citrus and lightly sprinkled with minerality and butterscotch. Oaked, long, savory & full - just like they do it in the old world.

'18 Black Market Semillon - Texturally complex with balanced tension, unaltered semillon. Crisp, creamy, subtle with a little honey on the tongue. Uncomprising and rewarding.

'18 Great Northern Vineyards Viognier - a delightful goldilocks not too sweet/dry/spicy/fruity. Just crisp and yum... with hints of fruit that will make you dream of tropics

Bubbly/Rosé Bottle - $42

'19 Pentage Fizz Blanc - a mouthful of bubbles and juicy ripe pear drifting away in bright lemon and grapefruit. The day just got better.

'19 Orofino Cab Franc Rosé - soft and delicate but with shiny bright red fruit. It's confusing - linger slowly over the classic herbal edge or guzzle away at that lovely fruit?
