

EPFA ENVIRONMENT POLICY

European Powerchair Football Association is committed to recognising the goals of the Paris Climate Change agreement, specifically the outline of the United Nations Global Climate Action, the framework for Sports for Climate Action, and UEFA's Environment Commitment.

EPFA encourages all our members in the European zone to ensure

To be constantly environmentally conscious and responsible

Reducing overall climate impact in locating competitions and distances that teams must travel and reduce carbon footprints