As with previous EPFA development events the emphasis will be on delivering a quality coaching and learning experience in powerchair football to the participants over the (four/five) days but also providing the environment for a social interaction experience and the development of friendships beyond the event.

Cost considerations:

Every participant is responsible for their own cost of getting to the event by air or by road. If flying, the only pick-up and return will be from Geneva airport. By train, you must use the Geneva airport Train station.

- EPFA will be covering part of the cost of participation for each of the twenty players and carers. The cost per person will cover accommodation, food, ground on-site transportation from/to the airport (if required), ground transportation from/to the Hotel (if required) and all the powerchair football and event social activities.
- Total costs per person (player or carer) staying at Hotel Ramada Encore La Praille based on twin room : 250€ per person.

Each participant will also receive an event welcome pack and a certificate of participation at the end.
