

Rio Grande Winery/Harvest Host

Las Cruces, New Mexico

<https://www.riograndewinery.com>

5321 N Highway 28, Las Cruces, NM 88005. Make sure to follow the Harvest Host directions not Google.

phone #575-201-3744

We paid $: 3 wine tastings, charcuterie board, 2 bottles of wine, and 4 glasses of wine

Discounts/Clubs/Hosts: Harvest Host Site – You need a Harvest Host Membership to stay here.

Facilities: Garbage can

Amenities: Pickleball Courts, Vineyard, Live Music on the Weekends, Club House & Tasting Room, Outdoor Patio, Covered Patio, Indoor Seating, Food Truck Coming Soon, Nibble Food, Wine & Beer

Pets & Trails: Pet friendly, there is a local neighborhood dog that may visit. No trails but lots of muddy fields when we were there. Some grassy area along the tree lined driveway.

Sites & Types: They have 10 full boondocking sites on a gravel parking lot.

Check in time is before 7PM/Check out time is before 4PM We were first to arrive, around 1:30. Directions said to check-in- just head to your spot, park in an east to west angle. The lot filled up fast. If you want a good site, get there early.

 Our Site #: Corner back in spot – Our back windows faced a field and the Organ Mountains (The Wizard of Oz scene with the flying monkeys was filmed in these mountains. They were also used as a backdrop to the Wicked Witches Castle.) Our living room side faced the winery. Totally the best site.

 Our Stay: Tuesday Feb 25-Thursday Feb 27, 2025 (closed Mondays)

 Cell/Internet/WiFi/Starlink/etc: None. We set up our Starlink & were good to go.

 Would we revisit? Absolutely but get there early as the sites fill up fast.

 Area Attractions we did:

- Slot Canyon Hike
- Sam's Club