 Would we revisit? Typically, we don't go to the same place twice but yes, we would revisit if in the area. We originally planned to stay at Sedona View Resort, but they moved our premium back in site with a beautiful view to another back in site w/o much of a view. In the end we tried but couldn't get in this new site w/ the size of our rig and the small turning radius of this site. In the end were refunded our money minus a late fee. So, that is how we ended up at Verde Ranch and they were able to accommodate us. It sat very close to a freeway and the lower area sites were quite loud from traffic noise. We could hear it but it wasn't annoying.

 Area Attractions we did: The Grand Canyon twice, Sedona shopping, eating, and photography at many trail head sites, the Sedona Airport, ate at the airport, airport vista overlook, Chapel of the Holy Cross, Red Rock Ranger Station, Boynton Hiking Trail, Tlaquepaque Arts & Shopping Village, Hideaway House Restaurant, The Secret Garden Restaurant in the Tlaquepaque shopping area, Jerome, 89A from Flagstaff to Sedona scenic drive, La Casita Restaurant, and golfing at Sedona Golf Resort
