

By Ezra

Attractions

- Trampoline court
- Ninja warrior course
- Foam pit
- Basketball dunk courts
- Dodgeball
- Climbing wall challenges
- Mechanical bull riding
- Padded jousting
- Ziplines
- Laser mazes

FUN FACTS

- Attractions: Big Air has many attractions, including trampoline dodgeball courts, slam dunk courts, ninja-warrior courses, launch pads, foam pits, a climbing wall, and a freestyle court.
- Battle Beam: Big Air's original attraction, Battle Beam is a one-on-one jousting battle where you balance over a foam pit.
- Lil' Air: An exclusive space for kids ages 6 and under.
- Parents' Lounge: A lounge with comfortable seating, free WiFi, and food.
- Big Eats: A snack bar that serves pizza, chicken tenders, and other treats.
- Party packages: Big Air offers party packages for up to 300 guests that include access for jumpers, pizza, drinks, and more.
- Grip socks: Big Air brand grip socks are required and are available for purchase at the park.
- Prices: Prices vary by location, day, time, and ages.
- Revenue: Big Air's average per-unit revenue is $2.6 million annually.

WHERE BIG AIR GOT IT'S NAME

Big Air Trampoline Park's name reflects its focus on active family entertainment.

The history of big air

- Establishment: The first Big Air Trampoline Park opened in Laguna Hills in 2013.
- Franchising: Big Air is the first and only indoor trampoline park franchise company in the United States.
- Locations: Big Air has locations in California, Arizona, and other states.
- Features: Big Air Trampoline Parks offer a variety of attractions, including

Dinning

- Pizza
- Pretzels
- Hot dogs
- Drinks
- Chicken
- French fries
- Snacks

Cool thing

- An astronaut guy you can meet there

About the party room

The party room is for you go on someone's birthday

THE END
