I was born on May 12, 2014. I used to watch TV all the time, now I don't. When I was 2, I decorated my old house with poop. When 4, I ate cockroaches and bird poop. When 6, I stuck my hand in my diaper and thought my poop was chocolate. When 7, I got a Nintendo switch and broke it when 8. when 10, my sins got weaker, but I still make mistakes!

WHERE MY NAME CAME FROM

Who are these people? Do you remember the story?

My name came from a Hebrew phrase Yeshayahu, which means “Yahweh is salvation” or “god saves”(it’s weird because I am a little wicked but good). Yeshayahu is made up of the Hebrew words Yesha, meaning “salvation”, & yah, which is a shortened form of Yahweh.

CREDITS

Looks like I struggled to make parts of this presentation, just like Revon struggled to make a presentation of Harvey that he is presenting any time soon or now.

Where I researched it: in my mind & chrome

How I did it: confidently

Why it took a long time: I was forgetful
