GLOVES UP FOR MEN'S MENTAL HEALTH

INTRODUCTION

BroFit Bankstown is proud to present a community driven event dedicated to raising awareness and support for men's mental health and wellbeing. The event marks the culmination of a 12-week men's boxing transformation program, where participants train under BroFit's experienced coaches to strengthen both mind and body through discipline, connection, and purpose.

More than just a fight night, this initiative celebrates courage, brotherhood, and growth, showcasing the journeys of men who have committed to personal transformation and positive change. Each round represents not only physical strength but the resilience to overcome challenges and inspire others to do the same.

This is a powerful opportunity for local businesses to get involved, unite their teams, and stand as visible supporters of men's wellbeing within our community. By partnering with BroFit Bankstown, sponsors join a movement that promotes awareness, unity, and hope, proving that when we fight together, everyone wins.
