

Beginning Beekeeping Course Outline 2022

Week 1 (Chapters 1, 2, 4)

Introductions

- History of Beekeeping
- Why keep bees
- What bees are doing right now
- Where to locate bees (hive placement)
- Beekeeping equipment
- Frames and foundation
- Types of individual bees – queen, workers, drones
- Personal equipment
- Ordering nucs and package bees.

Class meets 5 times for a 3 hours session each date

Dates: Saturdays:

February 19, 2022

February 26, 2022

March 5, 2022

March 12, 2022

March 19, 2022

Class Hours: 9:00 am until 12:00 pm
OR 1:00 pm until 4:00 pm

Week 2 (Chapters 3, 5, 6)

- Installing package bees
- Installing Nucs
- Feeding bees
- Species or subspecies of bees
- Swarming
- Nectar flow
- "Supering Up"
- Nectar and pollen sources
- Pollination
- Harvesting honey
- Extracting honey

Limited to 20 participants

Classes location:

Leedle Houme Bees
2713 State Highway 14
Mulkeytown, IL

Week 3 (Chapter 7)

- A season with your bees
- Integrated pest management
- Queenless colonies
- Useful manipulations of bee colonies
- Checking for queen cells
- Laying workers
- Signs of a failing queen
- A good worker brood pattern
- A queen cell
- Importance of checking the bees every 7-10 days

Presented by:

Leedle Houme Bees
Mulkeytown, IL 62865
(618) 724-2786

CALL TO ENROLL TODAY!

Week 4 (Chapter 8)

- Diseases, parasites, and pest.
- Wintering bees in Illinois
- Essential tasks for keeping colonies production
- Common beekeeping mistakes to avoid

Week 5

- Finish Up
- Review
- Visit to bee yard (when weather permits)

