President's Message August 2024

"Dear artists,

This guild functions because of many generous volunteers and committees, as well as the board of directors. I am always amazed at the level of energy and dedication members are willing to expend in service of our goals.

At our last meeting we had what looked like a full buffet! Thanks to our generous volunteers, we didn't go hungry.

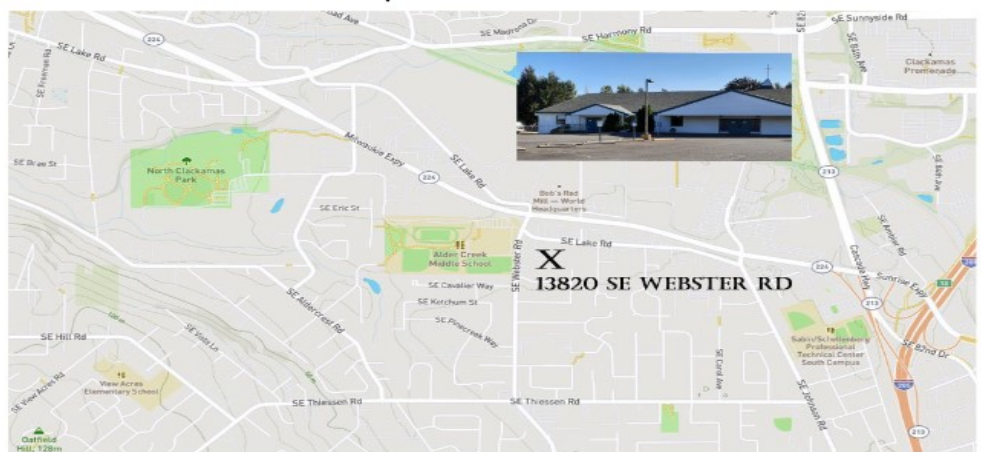

Karl Rousett has been bringing some of his delicious desserts for the years since he joined our guild, and has listened to the happy sounds of enjoyment. It seems natural that he is our hospitality volunteer. The amount of physical effort he puts into this task should not be overlooked. He puts the same attention to detail for our lunch as he does in his painting.

He prepares food, sets up tables, coffee and punch, all the little details that make our lunch break pleasant. Other members bring light finger foods that are eagerly consumed.

When the meeting is over, he cleans up, stores equipment, and helps with the furniture moving. (Last month there was an unusual setup of chairs and tables that took a large effort. I was exhausted by the end...we could have used more help.)

Please consider being Karl's helper. He may not ask for help, but he could use someone who is there for him, setting up and sharing cleanup. If there is someone who brings food consistently, thank you! And if you bring food once in a while, good too.

Sincerely,
Marie B"

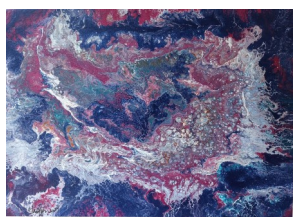

Regular meetings are held at the Saving Grace Church from 11am to 2pm, on the 2nd Tuesday of each month.

September Demo Artist

From Dawn Schneider Bio:

I started using alcohol ink about 10 years ago, while searching for something that would allow me to write on photo paper. While I do paint on a larger scale with acrylic, oil, and watercolor, working as a Framer at Michael's for the last few years has given me access to many media options on a daily basis. I really enjoy process, and my most recent favorite has been to use alcohol ink markers on a variety of fine art papers. I love the smooth blending they can produce, and the incredible array of colors that are easily, and somewhat affordably, available.

The most bizarre, discontinued Olympic sports-Painting

Back in the day, the Olympics also awarded medals for art, with events including painting and sculpture, music, architecture, and even literature.

Making its debut at the 1912 Olympics in Stockholm and continuing until the 1948 London Games, juries awarded competitors a total of 151 medals for artistic projects inspired by sport.

"Art is a necessity, beauty we must have in the world. Painting and sculpture and music and literature are all of the same piece as civilization, which is the art of making it possible for human beings to live together."
