Welcome All

Attending our meetings is a great way to meet fellow artists. Bring a painting or two for a friendly critique. Art demos are given by some of the best Portland area artists and make for a great learning experience.

President's Message March 2025

Greetings Guild Members,

We have a new board of directors, very much like the old one except we have a new treasurer, Maria Brown!

She will be trained by our previous treasurer Paul Boggs, who has bravely gone on to be a sort of web master for our .org site. With them will be our continuing backup treasurer, Sandra, who helped out when Paul had family responsibilities.

Paul has done such a critical job for our guild, helping us out of several issues. All the while caring for his Mom and painting. We have seen both Maria and Paul's art in our critiques, both turning out beautiful pictures.

Our guild is celebrating our anniversary (1973) as an organization. Thank you to our members who continue to amaze and inspire me as your continuing president.

Our continuing board members Larry Fox and Anne Sheridan are here working for our guild every month...get to know them!

Cheers,
Marie

March 11 Demo

At our March 11 meeting, Gary Michael gave a demo on Perspective and explained the differences using various perspectives. Gary drew a few quick sketches showing one-, two-, and three-point perspective. He then described the one-point perspective in a pastel he did a while ago of a market scene in Europe. He explained how the passageway curved but all lines still led to one point thereby explaining one-point perspective. He also showed how as the scene faded into the distance the people became smaller. In his picture with the river and bridge, he demonstrated two-point perspective. He demonstrated how the river and walkways led back to one point while the planes on the cathedral led to another point. Gary answered several questions from the audience, including about aerial perspective and how as one looks down from above, buildings are larger on top and smaller closer to the ground. He worked for many years as an architect as well as an artist, making him an expert in creating art with perfect perspectives. His full demonstration will be available in the YouTube video on the NCAG website (<https://www.youtube.com/@northclackamasartsguild>). Gary has been a member of NCAG for over twenty-five years and has been giving critiques, demos, and workshops regularly through the years. He is appreciated by us all.

Portland Art Museum Tour

People are welcome to get a one-hour tour at Portland Art Museum by Wayne Jiang on Thursday April 3. Meet Wayne (who gave demo to our guild in February) inside the entrance at 1:30 pm. Even though nearly half of the museum is closed for remodeling, it is free on first Thursdays, so come as early as you want after opening at 10:00 am. Explore the area where artists can place their art in the rental program. OK to bring a friend.

Questions? Call or email Char Tritt. (Contact information on page 9)

There will be no demo in April.

WORKSHOP CANCELLATION POLICY

Payment for all workshops is required before the event to hold your place. A full refund of the workshop fee is available if you cancel prior to 1 week in advance of the class. After that, the fee will be considered a donation and you will be issued a tax-deductible receipt.
