President's Message

Prior to our wonderful Cheers for 70 Years celebration, I spent the weekend reading the history of the PBAA. Volume 1 gave me insight into the vision of the small group of artists that came together to form the PBAA. The risks, the vision of the future, the ability to make changes and their investment of time, talent and resources into building the PBAA as a thriving artist community. They were open to change and ways to ensure the future. Purchasing the house which is now the Manley Art Center was not a popular choice, but after moving the gallery 5 times, the members came to accept the change and embrace their new "home". They were able to bend, not break. After many years of renovations, we have an incredible art center that is complimented and appreciated by visitors and our local community. All because a small handful of creative people had a vision for the future and those who followed made the changes necessary to continue their vision.

I'm sure there are more changes to come as the outside world continues to change. We can appreciate the past but not live in it. Your membership, time and talents ensure that we can adapt to the changes so we can continue to build on past visions and provide a future for the Pelican Bay Arts Association and the Manley Art Center. Thank you to everyone who helped make Cheers for 70 Years a success! Here's to 70 more years!

P.S. Take some time to read our history and understand how we came to be and watch for Volume 2 coming soon. Thank you to Nola Range for the time and talent in giving us this gift.

FEATURED ARTIST

Corbin Brashear is a fiber artist and teacher who creates whimsical mixed media sculptures, masks and tapestries using found natural objects and needle felted wool. Her work is profoundly influenced by the rugged wilderness of her remote home in the Siskiyou Mountains of Oregon. For the past 30 years, Corbin spends a few summer months on the Smith River living close to the earth her to deepen her artistic expression. This also offers her raw materials such as driftwood, kelp and lichen, to inspire and enhance her artwork.

In addition to creating her own art, Corbin has made it her life's work to create creative exploration opportunities for children. She creates programs to nurture and inspire the children in her own community. She loves sharing the freedom, expression, and art of needle felting.

Most recently, Corbin collaborated with Deanna Morse, to create a short film "Recipe for Birds" which has been shown at international and local film festivals.

She is the founder and teacher of Siskiyou Roots Learning Collective and runs a fiber arts program in the local schools, directs a children's theater program called Kindness Matters and works as a naturalist educator, taking children exploring in the outdoors, at Pacifica, a Garden in the Siskiyou.

Garden of the Month

A huge thanks to Peggy Patton and Jennie Dwaileebe for their volunteer work on the garden in front of the Manley Art Center. Children's Art Programs (CAP) Co- Coordinators

Back and Thriving!

It's been a wonderful year celebrating the return of the Children's Art Program (CAP)! After a single class last February, we were thrilled to bring the program back this summer. We kicked things off with a full, week-long Youth Summer Camp and have since offered fun, creative projects for kids each month.

Looking ahead, 2026 is already taking shape—with monthly classes beginning in February and something special planned all year long. Of note, we'll be introducing a Creative Sewing Workshop, where children will design and sew their own projects. All supplies and machines will be provided.

It promises to be an exciting year! Please spread the word to young family members, friends, and neighbors. Class sizes are limited, and pre-registration is required so we can prepare materials in advance.

Coming up next: Snowmen and Swirls on December 16.

Building Creativity, One Workshop at a Time

As 2025 draws to a close, I want to thank everyone who took part in our workshops this year – whether you joined us once or came back again and again, your enthusiasm and curiosity have kept our creative community thriving. We're wrapping up the year with another imaginative offering from Sharon Johnson, whose workshops continue to spark creativity and fun.

Looking ahead to the first quarter of 2026, we'll be focusing on skill building and offering even more opportunities for artists to explore new techniques, strengthen existing ones, and connect with one another. Thank you for helping make 2025 such a success – here's to an inspiring and art-filled year ahead!

Spotlight on Sharon Johnson

After delighting participants with her Mad Hatter Headdress & Tea Party, Sharon Johnson returns with Assemblage Jewelry – a two-session workshop where creativity meets craftsmanship.

Design and assemble one-of-a-kind jewelry pieces, perfect for yourself or as a handmade gift to close out the year!

Come explore something new this month – whether it's capturing the world through a lens or through a bit of Wonderland-inspired magic!

December Activities for the Artist Play Group - all members welcome to attend

Thursday, December 4, 4:00 pm to 6:00 pm, Classroom - THE ART OF PASTA

You are invited to join the Play Group Activity (free) for this one-time hands on class on The Art of Pasta. The recipe we are working from was created in the 12th century and is unique to Northern Italy, "Liguria". It contains a secret ingredient that keeps the pasta fresher and whiter than the usual mix.

The early pastas were often made in the shape of coins, so if you want to create some "coin" shaped pastas, bring something to imprint.

Some supplies, including the pasta ingredients, will be provided. The two-hour activity will provide time to make enough pasta for four servings - good to eat for a week or freeze for up to three months.

You will need to bring what is listed below.

- A knife for cutting and a fork for blending - regular fork is fine.
- A LARGE cutting board
- A baking sheet to hold your finished works of pasta art.
- A rolling pin or something like a wine bottle to roll the dough out
- Optional but helpful - a one cup measure and a 1 TB measuring spoon

SPACE IS LIMITED TO FOURTEEN PEOPLE. PLEASE EMAIL GUIA AT guiaandgary@gmail.com to confirm your attendance. Questions: email Guia

Thursday, December 18, 4:00 to 6:00, Manley Classroom - ZENTANGLING FOR CHRISTMAS

The Play Group is holding a fun activity before Christmas. Learn the art of Zentangling and make some lovely Christmas ornaments to hang on your tree or to give as gifts.

Provided - the cardboard for the Zentangling and some glitter and stick on jewels to enhance the features of your design.

Bring your color pens and brushes to fill in the designs and patterns AND a black pen to create the zentangle outlines.

SPACE IS LIMITED TO FOURTEEN PEOPLE. PLEASE EMAIL GUIA AT guiaandgary@gmail.com to confirm your attendance. Questions: email Guia
