President's Message

As this year draws to close, I want to thank ALL the volunteers that have given their time and talents to the Manley Art Center; the hours given by the board, the hosts, the artists who share their artwork, the gallery change-out team, the “foodies” who share their culinary delights, the 2nd Saturday volunteers, our gardeners, our historian, the event volunteers, the maintenance person that keeps an eye on the building, our committee chairs, our workgroup leaders and workshop teachers and our skilled and resourceful manager. Without all of you the Manley Art Center would not exist. Not just exist, but flourish! I hope your holidays are merry and bright. And all the best wishes of good health and happiness in the New Year.

Thank you,
President
Colleen Chambers

Children's Art Program (CAP): Looking Ahead to a Creative 2026!

While there are no CAP classes in January, we're kicking off the new year with big plans and new opportunities for young artists. CAP classes resume in February, and we already have something scheduled for every month—including the return of our week-long Youth Summer Camp in August.

We're also introducing something brand-new for 2026: Children's Creative Sewing!

After receiving multiple requests (and generous donations of new sewing machines), we're excited to offer a monthly Creative Sewing workshop series. Each month, a small group of up to four children will participate in a two-part class where they'll learn sewing basics and design and build a unique project. February's project? A quilted heart!

Registration for February CAP classes is open now—reserve your child's spot today!

New year, new goals, new skills... and new opportunities at Manley!

If you're still deciding on a membership level for 2026, the Manley ULTIMATE is designed for those who love learning. It includes all the benefits of Basic and Plus—and unlimited access to all adult workshops in 2026, including one 10-week hand-built pottery class.

Worried there might not be enough workshops to make it worthwhile? Rest assured—we already have over $700 worth of adult workshops fully booked for next year (instructor agreements signed!), with many more in the pipeline. Painting, drawing, fiber arts, music, wood burning, pottery, millinery—2026 is shaping up to be our most robust workshop year yet. And remember, you can upgrade your membership anytime by simply paying the difference.

Workshop Spotlight: "The Art of Texturing" with visiting artist Pam Haunschild

Kick off January with a creative boost! In this dynamic 3-session workshop, Pam explores how texture brings energy, depth, and emotion into your paintings—often doing the “detail work” for you in unexpected, expressive ways. Work in the watermedia of your choice (acrylic, watercolor, acrylic ink, or gouache) while experimenting with both professional texturing mediums and surprising household tools. Students typically create 4–6 starts and 1–2 finished pieces. | Member price: $135 (total all 3 sessions)

Come explore something new this month – whether it's capturing the world through a lens or through a bit of Wonderland-inspired magic!
