President's Message

Autumn is one of my favorite times of the year; the transition from summer to preparing for the winter months. It's a time of festive holidays and traditions and drawing family and friends close. A time to create the cozy comfort of home with warm food, apple and pumpkin pies, hot cider and cookies and all your favorite things!

We are starting off our autumn season at the Manley Art Center with a special Membership Appreciation event hosted by our Membership Chair, Susan Larson. It will follow the October Membership meeting and promises to be a special event to honor our members. There may even be a special surprise for the members- you'll have to come to the meeting to see what that will be – and no it's not ice cream!

In November mark your calendars for the 14th 4-6pm. This is our “Cheers for 70 Years” event. The Chamber is a co-sponsor, and it promises to be a wonderful celebration. I will be forming a committee in the first part of October to handle all the details. Let's make this really special, not just for us but also our community.

Plus, we are giving our “Give the Gift of Local Art” an extra push for November and December. Our retail section will be expanding; members will be able to bring in 4 items and be able to replace sold items weekly. This is ONLY for Nov. and Dec. Remember retail items are $50 or less and the rest of the retail policy remains the same.

If you have been hosting lately, I hope you have noticed more visitors from outside of the area. Our Office Manager, Rob, has done a great job marketing our art center. We now have a YouTube video of the gallery that will be updated monthly that shows off our gallery. All the marketing that is being done has brought in visitors from outside the area and increased sales. A definite plus for the Manley Art Center!

I will see you all at the October 23rd Membership meeting!

Create, Connect, and Be Inspired

Workshops at PBAA are more than just classes — they're a chance to connect with others, build confidence, and support our thriving art community. This October, we're excited to feature something special: a Creative Writing Workshop Series with visiting instructor Terri Glass, an accomplished poet, essayist, and haikuist.

Across four two-hour sessions, you'll explore your connection to nature by learning from the styles of eight pivotal nature writers — from familiar voices like Emerson and Thoreau to inspiring authors you may be “meeting” for the first time. Through discussion, curated prompts, and dedicated time to write, you'll discover new ways to express yourself and springboard into your own creativity.

Join us for one session or enjoy the full series — all levels are welcome!
