FEATURED ARTIST

JENNIE GRAHAM

Jennie Graham is a gifted artist based in Brookings, Oregon, whose diverse talents span quilting, china painting, watercolor, and pyrography. Inspired by her grandmother, who taught her to sew, Jennie began crafting her own unique clothing styles from a young age. Her artistic journey expanded in high school when she delved into drawing, laying the foundation for her future creative endeavors.

After 25 years of traveling, Jennie and her husband decided to make Brookings their home, where she further explored her passion for watercolor and pyrography. Her ability to fire and glaze china reflects her appreciation for intricate craftsmanship and her dedication to mastering a variety of art forms. Each piece Jennie creates showcases her distinctive style and artistic versatility, making her a cherished figure in the local art community.

President Jennie Graham

August was a busy month at Manley! We welcomed 15 young artists to our annual Youth Summer Art Camp and, for the second year, hosted a reception for Wild Rivers Film Festival filmmakers and VIP guests—giving us another opportunity to showcase our gallery and artists.

As we head into fall, the Board turns its attention to 2027, with strategic planning, Board nominations, and budget preparation underway. We're excited about the year ahead and grateful to the many members whose time, talent, and enthusiasm help make Manley such a vibrant part of our community.

Make a positive difference in our community with a gift to the Pelican Bay Arts Association. We encourage you to remember the arts by considering a bequest in your will. For further details, please contact the Art Center Director.

Art Classes

August was a wonderful month of creativity as we welcomed young artists to our week-long Summer Art Camp! We're thrilled with how much fun and learning took place.

Now we're back to our regular schedule! September brings the return of our popular sewing program with a fun patchwork pillow project. And Krista is back with another creative favorite, "Mini-Room Makeover." We can't wait to see what our young artists create!

August brought two wonderful opportunities to learn and create! Eight students joined visiting instructor Laura McClain for an immersive Wet-Felted Pinch Pots class, and we enjoyed a free demonstration and discussion with talented scratchboard artist John Sandoval.

September brings Jennie's Dry-Felted Landscape Painting class, "Grazy Days". This beginner-friendly class features a peaceful hillside scene with grazing sheep and introduces the relaxing art of creating landscapes with wool fibers. All supplies are provided—just come ready to explore a unique and enjoyable art form!

Check the class schedule and reserve your spot—there's always something new to learn at Manley!
