

Live wedding painting

A moment captured in art, LIVE. A widely popular service and rising trend in SA. Live event or wedding painting is a way to keep a moment in your day, forever in watercolour.

From the first kiss in a chapel at a wedding, or a harvest table at a corporate dinner, the hero of the painting can be anything. This setup is minimal - my French Easel, chair, small table and light.

Packages

Live painting is quoted per person, per size. Guests will always be blurry in the background unless requested otherwise. The priority is the bride & groom with the surroundings of the venue.

All packages include travel in and around Pretoria, with minimal setup with my French Easel. Any further travel will be additional.

All packages include 6-8 hours of painting live at the wedding, anything not complete at the wedding will be done afterward. Delivery included. Frame excluded.

The rijk geel difference: Before the wedding, we will decide on the moment you want to capture, and practice it. That will give me enough reference to start prepping the artwork. Most of the work and details of the moment will be added on the day.
