

Makeup and Cancellation Policy

MAKEUP POLICY

Because of our strict student to teacher ratio, missed classes will not automatically result in make-up classes, prorated tuition or refunds. There are no refunds for classes missed including scheduled holidays.

In order to receive a make up token, you must provide at least 45 minutes notice prior to the class that you were due to attend via your customer portal or app. We do not accept notifications of absence via phone or email. If you provide the requisite amount of notice, then you will receive a make up token (after you have missed the class) that will expire 60 days from the date of the class that you were due to miss.

Make up tokens can be redeemed on a self serve basis via customer portal or app. We do not accept bookings for make up lessons via phone or email. Make up lessons can be booked a maximum of seven days in advance from the class you would like to attend. Make up lessons are strictly subject to availability, where another student has notified of their absence and they're available position will be added to the pool of spots for that day. Make up lessons are a service that we are happy to offer our current clients, if you still have a make up token but no longer a client with us, you will be unable to use it. Make up lessons cannot be exchanged for cash, credit or other benefit.
