2002 USC Season Outlook

YOUNG TROJAN TRACKSTERS BUILDING FOR FUTURE

The 2002 season could be a rebuilding year for the USC men's track and field team.

The Trojans lose an NCAA champion, a three-time All-American, a two-time Pac-10 champion and several Pac-10 finalists from a squad that finished second in the conference and led for 128 of the NCAA Championships in 2001.

The Trojans do return several all-star performers from last season and have a limited recruiting class coming in to help replenish the roster. But coach Don Allen knows the season will be a challenging one.

"We've got a lot of holes," said Allen. "We are really young. Just how good we can be depends on a lot of things, especially what happens with our athletes who also play football."

Allen always has three goals set for his team: win the UCLA dual meet, the Pac-10 Championship and the NCAA title. While the Trojans have had success at both the national and conference levels in the last few years, the goal of winning the dual meet was especially important, as it represented Allen's commitment to revive the spirit of track and field in Los Angeles.

Last season, he finally realized that goal. The Trojans beat the Bruins, 24-1, in their 22-meet dual series to their conference rivals. The meet was attended by a raucous standing-room-only crowd at USC's new Katherine B. Loker Stadium.

"It was really a great feeling," said Allen. "I've had some great athletes and teams in my years here, but it was the 2001 team that broke the dual impasse. They are forever to be remembered in the job books. The dual showed that track and field needs to be job. The team really battled hard and put on a show."

Not to be underestimated is the impact of Katherine B. Loker Stadium on the USC track and field program. The new facility houses track offices, locker rooms, meeting rooms and nearly 2,000 seats. It has become a prominent part of the USC campus and led to the dual spotlight in 2003 when the Trojans host the Pac-10 Championships.

"Having this facility has been very important to us," said Allen. "It lets our athletes feel they are important and that they are being supported by the university. It also gives our fans a first-class venue to watch our best performers."

In recent years, Trojan fans have witnessed performances by Allen's men's teams that are in keeping with the fine tradition of USC track and field. During his seven years, his men's teams have topped in the top 10 of the NCAA six times and have won the Pac-10 Championship three times. His athletes have won six NCAA individual titles and have been accepted All-American Athlete 28 times.

"I have a responsibility to this program to do the best that I can to constantly improve it," said Allen. "There are enough trophies in my office to fill a museum, so there is a lot to live up to. But I wouldn't have it any other way."

Squad Breakdown

The squad are a major collection made for the Trojans, as three of USC's top athletes to the senior may have signing football offers. Head coach Don Allen says senior Steven McCullough may not be ready to go after suffering an abdominal injury during football season. McCullough's presence, he will have to guard by junior Katharine B. Loker and Kevin Kelly, plus junior David West in the 100m relay team. McCullough was the Pac-10 runner-up in the 100m last season and an All-American in that event in 2001. However, as a transfer Pac-10 runner in the 100m and 200 All-American in the 400m relay, while also sets a lifetime in the 100m of 10.33. McCullough plays football for the Trojans, while Robert is a cornerback and a wide receiver. West is USC's lone returning NCAA 100m qualifier from last season.

"We return David West, who ran a personal best 10.26 last year," said Allen. "David West was a 100m best last year and was also a 200m All-American. There is a solid relay and possibly Steven McCullough if he is healthy, and we can be pretty good 400m relay. If those guys don't come through, though, we will have to patch some things together."

Part of the solution could be incoming freshman Wes Felix, a first-year runner who will compete some inside the season, especially in the 200m. Another solid freshman, Philip Finckh, is the 2001 California state 100m champ.

In the 400m, the Trojans lose an iron man in Andre Anderson, but should be able to maintain their strength thanks to some promising newcomers and the development of people within the program.

"We've won the Pac-10 400m relay six out of the last seven years," said Allen. "I'd like to keep that going."

Junior college transfer Brandon Matlock is the national junior champion and should be a major contributor for USC this season. Aside from the senior Ryan Wilson, who has had a great season and is nearly a legend, coach will need a consistent outside line. Senior David Black and freshman Cesar Gonzalez, Anthony Newman and Jeff Hunt.

"Matlock might be able to come around, but I expect him to be doing very well by the end of the year," said Allison. "Also, he should be able to help us a lot, along with Black, who Gonzalez, Newman and Hunt have looked good in practice. There is a possibility that we could be as good as not even last year in the mile relay. We have a lot of people in that 400 yard second relay who need to step it up and bring their time down."

In the middle distances, the Trojans will rely primarily on senior Karen Elliott, who has looked like the 2001 U.S. Olympian. She will attempt to lead the USC 800m team. Elliott will allow us the 1500m and a leg on the 1000m relay. He will be joined in the middle distances by sophomore Kevin Runyon and freshman William Artopo.

"Karen Elliott is a warrior," said Allison. "He had a terrific season last year and he looks for bigger and better things for this season. Between us improving and could help us at all the last meet, so could Artopo."

In the longer distances, USC will rely on junior 5000-meter runner Justin Barnes, the hero of the USC dual meet. Barnes scored an upset third in the 5000m against the Bruins to clinch the win.

The hurdles is perhaps USC's strongest area, with a mix of experience and transactions on the roster. Junior Pavel Wilson earned All-American honors by leading the 110m and 300m hurdles in the NCAA at 2001. His PR of 1:15.9 is sixth on the all-time USC 110m hurdle list. Junior Marcel Adams was injured last season by a knee ball injury but should return to the form that saw him place second in the high hurdles at the 2000 Pac-10. Sophomore Jeff Chase is another one of the top intermediate hurdlers in the JC ranks at Eastern Idaho College, while freshman high hurdler Jeff Chase was third in the high hurdles and second in the intermediate hurdles at the 2001 California state meet. Another freshman, Kenneth Thurman provides the 300m.

"The key was to be ready to go in the hurdles," said Allison. "Ryan Wilson is a premier athlete and a clutch performer. He is very consistent. He could once again be an All-American. Adams is in good shape and it is good to have him back. Hickman will help us all day in the intermediate, but don't in the 1000m relay. He also helps to free up Wilson to concentrate on the high hurdles. Chase is a young guy who has a chance to emerge into a good college hurdler. Thomas will help us down the road as well."

In the jumps, USC will steady into the traditional Dukes Members who last year became the Pac-10 when Luther Peoples Jr. stepped in to lead the USC long and high jump. Sophomore Justin Kopeck, a first-year jumper from Evans, should lead the Trojans primarily in the high jump. Kopeck is the best low jumper in the 21st century and was a world-class bronze medalist in the 2000 college transfer Laurence Brink will lead a second in the 800m relay in this jump. In the long jump, sophomore Andre Santos, Kopeck and Brink form a nice trio.

"Just see what Kopeck can do," said Allison. "The certainly has good skills. If he can continue to improve, we may be in business. Mason and Brink should both step out at the track and confidence levels."

In the high jump, USC is in good hands with David Inzerwil. The Polish sophomore is already second on the all-time USC high jump chart with a best of 7'3". He took 10th at last year's NCAA, but should improve on that finish this season.

"Inzerwil had a very consistent year," said Allison. "The only thing about Andre Santos is that the last meet he competed in. He is one of the best high jumpers in the Pac-10 and should contend at the national level."

The Trojans have been a major strength for USC in recent years, as Rogers have garnered the national title and 10 All-American honors in his last three years. The well-balanced, tough, 10-conviction Reggie is a true team player. All-American hurdler Robinson, as well as the host of leading shot putter Tom Mounts due to academic challenges. There are some high-potential athletes in USC's heavier weight classes. Trojans hammer thrower Michael Murray (high school hammer throw lead) and anchor of the 4x100 relay team, another promising hammer thrower is sophomore Harrison Lee. Both have the potential to throw over 200 feet.

"Murray may continue for the Pac-10 title," said Aloia. "And Lee is one of the most improved players in the country."

Senior Mike Palko is USC's leading shot putter with a best of 53.6. In the javelin, senior William O'Grady is proving to be quite a tough performer and anchor for the 4x100 relay. O'Grady is also a lead thrower in the U.S.A. shot meet. Also in the javelin, sophomore Rob Henderson has shown he has a big arm, with upcoming freshman Devon Hale a general athlete who could be making quite an impact for himself at USC for years to come.

"O'Grady seems to PR every year at the dual meet," said Aloia. "While trying to take his meet by the neck and tie to get scores of the Pac-10, Henderson takes care of the dual meet, which looks to be very tight. He could be a school record holder by the time he leaves."

The javelin vault course must overcome the departure of 2003 NCAA champion and school record holder Devan Rios, who leaves as a four-time coach of the USC javelin. However, with the new NCAA javelin vault champion at Long Beach State University in 1982, Marquette sophomore will be Jeff Ryan, who has been coached by David Gagliata. Ryan improved tremendously his sophomore year and set a Pac-10 mark, while Gagliata comes highly regarded from Hartman Junior College.

"We have great javelin prospects, but we may be a little deeper here than we are last year," said Aloia. "Both Ryan and Gagliata can hit 300 feet consistently. They both should be out at Pac-10."

The Trojans have a large group of athletes who continued to help out at the dual meet and conference level. Senior team captain Russell Stevens is a three-time Pac-10 finalist and seventh on the all-time USC decathlon chart. He should once again be a Pac-10 runner and may qualify for the NCAA. Senior Tim Henderson took a break from javelin throwing in the '05 dual meet, which senior jumper Shelton Davis could be a factor as well. Sophomore Corey Fitzgibbon (middle jump), who senior racewalker Ashley Aguilari and freshman Robert Bates could have an immediate impact.

If Bailey can get a solid contribution from her middle distance and overall speed of the young talent that has been added to the roster, the Trojans will be good to watch as we get into the Pac-10 title.

"We certainly can get a lot of things if we put our minds to it," said Aloia. "We have a long way to go. Making our conference will be a big goal, but we will have to give up the challenge for the conference championship."

RON ALLICE

USC Director of Track & Field

Like a phenomenon from the ashes, USC track and field has reemerged as a force on the collegiate scene.

Under the guidance of Director of Track and Field Ron Allice, the Trojan men went on a run of seven consecutive top 10 finishes—a feat last accomplished during the late 1960s and early 1970s, under Steve Wulfsberg. From 1996-2000 and have won three Pac-10 titles in the last five years. Meanwhile, the Women of Troy have become one of the top programs in the country thanks to four consecutive top five finishes, including the 2003 NCAA team championship. Last year, the USC women won their first national championship and finished second at the Pac-10. The men's track season was highlighted by a huge upset win in the UCLA dual meet—USC's first win in the series in 22 years. The USC men also posted a close second to Stanford at the Pac-10 and later led for 12th at the NCAA. In 2000, he led the USC men's team to a seventh place showing and the Women of Troy to second. It was the women's best-ever showing at the NCAA. In 1999, USC was the only program that finished in the top five in both men's and women's track and field. In 1998, the Trojan men's team finished in seventh place while the women's team finished in sixth place while the women's team finished in sixth place. In 1997, USC finished the Trojans men's team to be the Pac-10 Conference title (and 1977 and 20th overall) before finishing first at the NCAA. In 1996, Allice guided the USC women's team to its first ever Pac-10 title and placed the men's squad in a 10th place finish at the NCAA. And in his first year at USC in 1995, he led the men's team to a fourth-place finish at the NCAA.

USC's past successes in track and field are well known: 29 NCAA championships (including two indoor titles), 61 world records, 87 Olympic team members, 40 Olympic gold medals and 16 inductions in the U.S. National Track and Field Hall of Fame—all encapsulated in 102 years of a rich and storied tradition.

And now, with the second century of Trojan track and field already well underway, Ron Allice and his staff continue to work hard to maintain the legacy of USC's most successful athletic program.

Allice, a prep standout at Long Beach (Cal.) Poly High, is well known for his ability to win. His overall dual meet coaching record is 211-134 in 33 years at the school, including 11 dual championships in 10 years at Long Beach City College. His previous stop before heading at USC, Allice's programs have produced more than 220 All-Americans, plus 15 Olympians.

four world record holders and seven American record holders. He has coached at his high school, junior college and collegiate levels on the way to compiling his outstanding coaching statistics.

Allice has certainly reached the top echelon of his career, although he has not forgotten the beginning of his coaching days. In his first coaching job, he guided the Long Beach Cosmos, a girls' and women's AAU program, for four years (1964-68), expanding the squad from just five girls to more than 150 competitors. During that time, he was also a graduate assistant at Long Beach State in 1964, an assistant at Compton (Cal.) High in 1966 (the team was second at the CIF championships) and the head coach for track and cross country for two years (1967-69) at Wilson High in Long Beach.

The next three seasons (1969-71), he was the track and cross country coach at Poly High in Long Beach. His track teams went 2-4 and 0-2 in the Moccasin League title each year. He 1971 squad was ranked as California's top dual meet team and was fifth at the state meet.

Alice was then Cal Poly Pomona's track and cross country head coach for two years (1972-73). Again, the success he had enjoyed at previous stops followed him — the Broncos lost only one dual meet, won two CCAA titles (a first in school history) and finished fifth in 1972 and sixth in 1973 at the NCAA College Division championships.

He spent the next five seasons (1974-78) as the track and cross country head coach at Long Beach State. Despite being a new Division I program and having just three scholarships, four of the squads placed among the nation's Top 10 dual meet teams. He won one Pacific Coast Athletic Association title and his teams finished second twice. Two of his cross country teams won the PCAA crown (two others were runners-up).

In 1979, Alice went to Long Beach City College. During his tenure (1979-80), his men's teams won the conference championships all 16 years and lost only one dual meet (0-1) in that time. Besides the 11 state crowns (including five in track), his Vikings had five state runner-up finishes and won 14 Southern California championships (with two second place finishes). In 1980, his team was selected by Track & Field News as the best junior college team in history. He was named the 1992 Coach of the Year by both the California Community College Coaches Association and the California Coaches Association (CCA). He also coached LBCC's cross country teams, including the 1999 state title and the 1991 state runner-up. He was the 1992 CCA Cross Country Coach of the Year.

Alice's achievements have not only been limited to the coaching ranks. He graduated Long Beach Poly High where he was a star athlete in the 440-yard dash. He went to Long Beach City College before attending Long Beach State, where he set the school record in the 440-yard dash. He was inducted into Long Beach State's Athletic Hall of Fame in 1993.

Alice received his bachelor's degree in physical education in 1962 and his master's in physical education in 1970, both from Long Beach State.

He and his wife, Sharlene, have three children: Lance (34, who is a sports and marketing agent as well as a substitute teacher at Long Beach Poly High), Marinda (32, a USC graduate who is a worker in the field of genetics and special patient care in the Bay Area) and Sean (26, a graduate of the USC School of Cinema who works in film production).

JOHN HENRY JOHNSON
Sprints/Decathlon/Recruiting Coordinator

John Henry Johnson enters his eighth year as an assistant coach and multi-sport coach. He works exclusively with USC's sprinters and decathletes, and the women's sprint team. They've just won men and women's multiple titles over spring break in the field.

This season's women's race was turned south by track and Johnson has coached USC's best three sprint All-Americans. In the 100m, Susan McClurg set a school best time in 2001 and a career best time in 2004. In the 200m, Christina Lee set an All-American in 1999 and 1998. Johnson also leads one of the top decathlon programs in the country, with four of his athletes scoring over 7,000 in the

USC MEN'S TOP 10 PERFORMERS

Listed below are the Top 10 USC track and field performers in each outdoor event during seasons in which they represented USC through Sept. 1 of their senior year. It does not include marks made before or after attending USC, or during seasons in which they did not compete for USC. Current Trojans are listed in bold. (Note: Rankings are based on the conversion of plus .24 seconds from hand timing to electronic timing in the 100 and 200 meters, plus .14 in the 400 meters, as established by the NCAA, and are marked with a "+". For races above 400 meters, the electronic time is rounded off to the nearest tenth and marked with an "e". An "n" means non-winning.)

TROJANS IN THE WORLD RANKINGS

USC athletes have earned more places in the Top 10 in the world (and Top 15 between 1975 and 1978) than any other university in the nation. The rankings are compiled by Track and Field News, the bible of the sport.

Since the rankings were initiated in 1947, 72 different Trojans have placed among the world's best 261 times.

Paths of Glory

The Story of USC's Unmatched Track & Field History

USC is well known as one of the most successful athletic programs in the history of the NCAA, with 92 men's and women's national championships. The Trojans have won far more NCAA team and individual titles combined than any other university. However, the most dominant force in USC's slate of athletic programs is not the baseball team (12 College World Series titles) or the football squad (eight national championships) but the men's track and field program, with an unprecedented 28 NCAA titles (including nine straight, 1935-43).

Trojan athletes have dominated the track and field scene for decades. From the exploits of sprinter Charlie Paddock and thrower Clarence "Bud" Houser in the 1920s and 1930s, sprinter Mel Patton in the 1940s, thrower Parry O'Brien in the 1950s, sprinter Lennox Miller and pole vaulter Bob Seagren in the 1960s, sprinter Quincy Watts in the 1980s and continuing on to four-time NCAA hammer champion Balazs Kiss (only the fifth collegian to win four in a row) in the 1990s, USC is synonymous with track and field excellence.

THE CROMWELL YEARS: 1909-1948

The roots of Troy's preeminence date back to 1926, when coach Dean Cromwell brought the first NCAA track and field championship to USC. Cromwell, who led the Trojans from 1909-48, also served as head coach of the football team for five seasons.

However, the foundation he laid was not on the gridiron but the cinderpaths. Cromwell's track squads won 12 NCAA championships and featured 34 NCAA individual champions. In addition, Cromwell was unanimously selected as headcoach of the victorious 1948 U.S. Olympic team, a group which featured five Trojans (Mel Patton, Bob Chambers, Roland Sink, Wilbur Thopson and Cliff Bourland). In fact, Patton, Thomson and Bourland brought home gold medals in their respective events from London, the Olympic site.

From 1935-43, USC experienced a streak of unequalled track and field success. No other university has come close to matching Troy's string of nine consecutive NCAA championships, all under Cromwell's watchful eye. Nicknamed the "Maker of Champions," he fashioned Trojan athletes into a powerhouse. At the 1936 Olympics in Berlin, USC trackmen scored enough points (37 1/2) to have finished among the top five in the world. Cromwell's influence extended far beyond the USC campus to the corners of the world. He personally tutored champions in every Olympic Games from 1912 to 1948, and upon his retirement in 1949, "The Dean" remained involved as a regular figure in various Southland sporting events until his death in 1962.

TWO JESSES, NINE NATIONAL TITLES: 1949-1961

Jess Hill and Jess Mortensen, both integral parts of USC's proud athletic heritage, carried the track and field torch after Cromwell's retirement. Both men are still considered among the finest all-around athletes in USC history, and their accomplishments did not end after their playing days were over.

Hill, who lettered in three sports at USC (football, baseball and track), served as head coach of Troy's track and field program in 1949 and 1950, leading the Trojans to an undefeated season and national championship in both seasons. From 1951-56, Hill coached the football team, and in 1957, he began his tenure as USC athletic director, a position he held until 1972.

Mortensen's reign at USC also began as an undergraduate. The talented athlete lettered in track, basketball and football, winning the NCAA javelin title as a junior. After a 14-year coaching stint at Riverside Junior College, he returned to become coach of the Trojan track and field team in 1951, leading Troy to seven NCAA championships in his 11-year tenure. Mortensen's Trojan teams never lost a dual meet, going 79-0 between 1951 and 1961. He developed some of Troy's best-known trackmen, including Parry O'Brien and Max Truex. Sadly, "Mort" died suddenly at the age of 54 from complications caused by a blood clot. Hill, his long-time friend and teammate, stepped in as interim head coach for the 1962 season, and a new chapter in Trojan track and field history was about to begin.

THE WOLFE YEARS: 1963-1984

The prospect of succeeding three consecutive coaching legends would be a difficult task for anyone, but Vern Wolfe answered the challenge.

During his 22 years at the helm of the Trojan track and field program, USC captured five outdoor NCAA championships, including back-to-back titles in 1967 and 1968. A pole vaulter for Cromwell's Trojan teams, Wolfe also won indoor titles in 1967 and 1972. At the time of his retirement in 1984, he was the third-winningest coach in U.S. track history, all despite reductions in scholarships and the lack of a top-flight on-campus facility.

Wolfe, who competed in senior events as a pole vaulter, attacked all problems with a straight-ahead approach. He continued to win throughout his career and towards the end oversaw the modernization of Cromwell Field, USC's track facility which served as a training site for the 1984 Olympic Games in Los Angeles. And so, after 21 years on the job, Wolfe retired and gave way to Ernie Bullard.

Vern Wolfe

BULLARD AND BUSH: 1985-94

Another in the line of former Trojan athletes to become head coaches at USC, Ernie Bullard came to Troy from San Jose State, where he helped build the Spartans into a national contender. It didn't take long for Bullard to continue Troy's winning ways, recruiting athletes like sprinter Quincy Watts, a two-time gold medalist at the 1992 Olympic Games.

Jim Bush was the man picked to replace longtime friend Bullard in 1991. After all, who better to rebuild the USC program than the man who guided UCLA to five national championships?

Bush helped stabilize the program and recruited some of Troy's stars, like Balazs Kiss of Hungary, the 1993, 1994, 1995 and 1996 NCAA champion in the hammer throw. Consequently, he helped lay the foundation for the latest in the distinguished line of Trojan head track coaches: Ron Alice.

Ernie Bullard

Jim Bush

RON ALLICE, THE NEW ERA: 1995 -

Ron Alice, who prior to the 1995 season was named the Director of Track and Field for USC's combined men's and women's program, is no stranger to success. He has distinguished himself at every level of competition, all in the Southland, and is well-known not only as a master builder, but a man who can keep a program at the highest level year after year.

Alice came to Troy with impeccable credentials: 11 state championships in 16 years at Long Beach (Calif.) City College, where his 1980 squad was called "the best junior college team in history" by Track & Field News. During his tenure at Long Beach C.C., his teams lost just one dual meet.

He quickly went to work, guiding the USC men's team to a fourth-place finish at the 1995 NCAA Outdoor Championships. In 1996, his Women of Troy won their first-ever Pac-10 title. In 1997, he led the Trojan men's team to its first Pac-10 title since 1977 and a third-place showing at the 1997 NAAs. At the 1998 NAAs, he led the USC men's team to seventh-place and the Women of Troy to fifth. In 1999, the men won their second Pac-10 title in three years. At the NAAs, the women finished third and the men fifth (as a combined men's and women's program, this was the best finish in school history). In 2000, the men finished seventh—their seventh consecutive top 10 finish—while the women placed second—their highest finish ever. And in 2001, the Women of Troy won their first-ever NCAA team championship while the men tied for 12th.

Alice has a career dual meet record of 211-39-1 at five schools, and he has coached more than 220 All-Americans, 20 Olympians, four world record holders and seven American record holders. He takes the storied history of USC track and field very seriously.

"I have a mandate to bring this program to its rightful place," Alice said. "This university is a special place to us all, and we are ready to add another chapter to USC's illustrious history."

Now ready to return to the heights of athletic achievement, USC track and field, as has been the case for 102 glorious years, is in good hands.

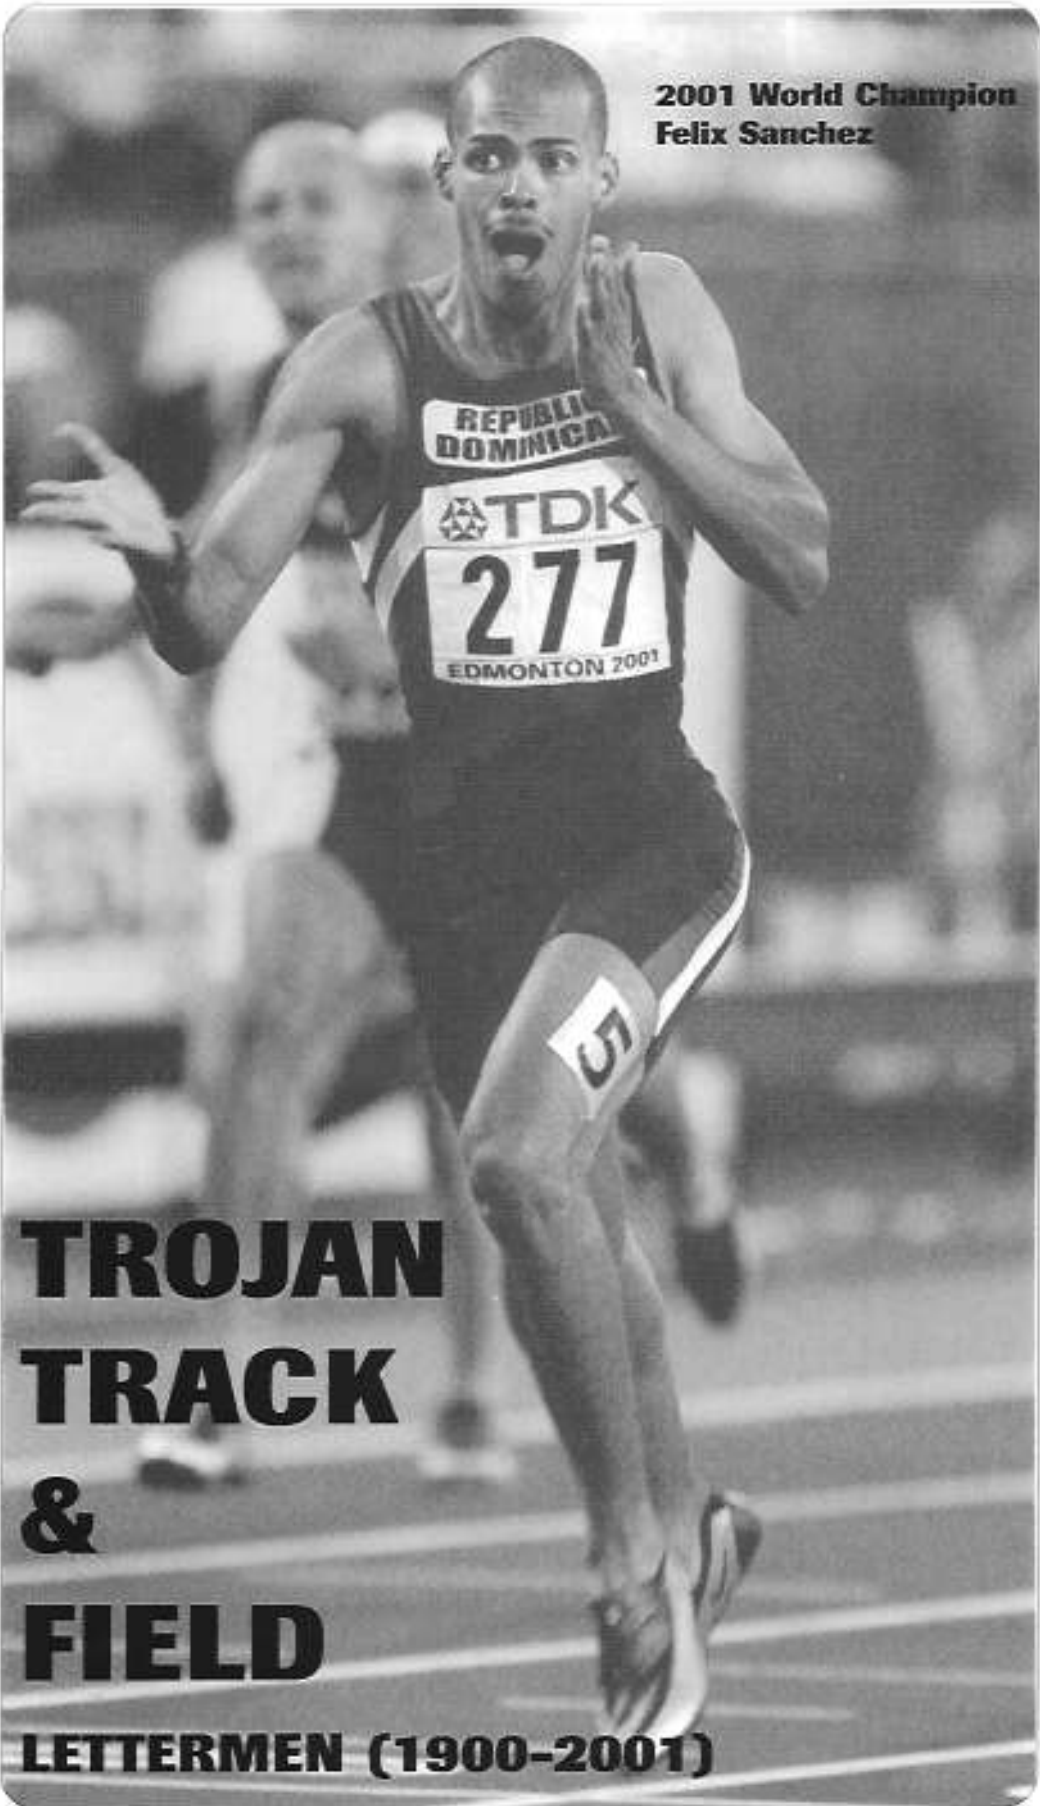

Parry O'Brien

Trojan long jumper Randy Williams won the Gold Medal at the 1972 Olympic Games in Munich with a jump of 27-4 1/4, which is still a USC freshman record.

Early in the spring of 1966 USC assistant track coach Willie Wilson was found to have terminal cancer. USC's two-mile relay of John Link, Dennis Carr, Bruce Bess and Davi Buck vowed to give him something special to remember and ran 7:14.2 to set a world record at the Los Angeles Coliseum on May 13, 1966.

2002 USC Season Outlook

WOMEN OF TROY SEEK TO REPEAT AS NATIONAL CHAMPS

When a team finally gets that big win that has eluded it for so long, the question often posed is, "How do you do it again?"

The answer in USC's case is, "Try to do it again."

That's because the Women of Troy, who won their first NCAA team title in 2001, are the favorite to win it all again in 2002, according to Track and Field News.

USC scored 64 points at the NCAA meet in Eugene, Ore. this past June. It's the fear of those points returning to do battle for the Women of Troy in 2002. What's more, an outstanding recruiting class only promises to augment that total.

"Winning the NCAA Championship was obviously very significant for us," said USC coach Bob Alton, who enters his eighth season at the helm. "The girls that made it will hopefully have an effect on this year's team as well. Only time will tell whether the team is as hungry and motivated as we was in previous years."

That hunger and motivation has helped transform the Women of Troy into one of college track and field's elite programs. After placing 37th at the NCAA's in 1990 (Alton's first year at USC), the Women of Troy improved to 10th place nationally by 1998, then took third in 1999 and second in 2000 before finally grabbing the team title in 2001.

"This program has been a building process," said Alton. "Over the last five or six years, we have gradually gotten better and better. The success of the program has a lot to do with us trying to be balanced. Work one of the most, if not the best, balanced program in the country right now."

Balanced, it's a philosophy that has carried Alton far during his career, but he understands that there are a lot of other factors that go into a program's success.

"It takes a lot of things to get right in this national championship," he said. "You've got to get the right mixtures and you need to be ready to take the high degree of competition you meet at the NCAA. By competing in the strongest conference in the country, I think we've set well by the time we get to the big meet."

USC will once again face a tough schedule, with a home meet against Brigham Young and the annual war with UCLA in Woodward, plus the ever-competitive Pac-10 Championships.

Angela Williams

But Alton stresses no words when he states his goals for the team.

"This nation now has 27 track clubs at its disposal," he said. "Happily, we can win number 20 this year."

Squad Breakdowns

Alton has plenty of talent to repeat as NCAA champion. Helping to lead the way is one of the finest sprinters in the country. And leading the group is none other than senior prodigy Angela Williams, who's not only the fastest woman in something no other woman has ever done, won three NCAA 100-meter titles. There is a serious appearance at the 2001 World Championships, a silver medal and college record in the 60-meter dash at the 2001 World Indoor Championships, a school record.

It is all this talent and handful of Pac-10 gold medal can honors, and you have one of the finest female sprinters ever to grace the college track scene. Besides 60, she is fourth 100-meter title and another national championship will only add to the impressiveness of her resume.

"I don't know how often you get an Angela Williams in your coaching career," remarked Alton. "So to have her come back for her senior year and to be a great time NCAA championship history in the making. And she is setting that history as a Trojan. We couldn't have a more successful and quality person to head up our sprinters than Angela."

Senior All-American Kathleen Davis won the 100-meter, 200 meters, 400 meters and both relays for the Women of Troy for the second year in a row. She finished second in the 200m at the NCAA in 2000 and third last season. That third place was especially big, as it clinched the national Championship for the Women of Troy.

"Kathleen Davis is an strong now as she's ever been," said Alton. "We have to get her to the point where she can equal or improve on what she's previously done at the NCAA."

Beyond Davis was an array of talented young women who are jockeying for a chance to lead the team. Junior Daria Page came on strong at the end of last season and is ready to proceed, but Tiffany Bennett and Mya Edmondson are in the mix as well. Freshman Amy Weatherston also looks promising, but keep an eye out for junior college transfer Natasha Meyers, who placed fifth in the semifinals of the 100-meter at the World Championships this past summer. Meyers, who really came around at the end of last year and made a big difference in that event. We think she has the potential to score in the shot hurdles this year. Anastasia has a good chance to hit, plus a great attitude and work ethic. With those two, we have at least a 7-2 chance in the 400-meter hurdles as anywhere in the country."

The horizontal jumps are in good hands once again with the return of senior All-American Tatejana Oshchova, who took third at the NCAA in the long jump last season and also was a Pac-12 finalist in the long jump. Junior Diak Pige finished eighth at the Pac-12 in the long jump and should continue to improve this year. Freshmen Tiffany Jones and Karen Ota could also make an impact.

"Tatejana continues to develop as she has and stays injury free, she'll expect an All-American," said Aloia. "She is a great competitor and is very consistent. That pays off. In the long jump, we have Stephanie Jones, but we are as good or better than we were last year. Pige has really come on in the long jump and Tiffany Jones' development could give us good depth in the long jump. Karen Ota also has a chance to make an impact in the jump."

Junior Spring Harris is USC's top high jumper and also a heptathlete. She took sixth in that high jump at last year's Pac-12 and seventh in the heptathlon.

"Spring Harris is one of the most improved athletes in the Pac-12," said Aloia. "She will concentrate more on the high jump this year than the heptathlon."

USC's pole vault program has finally gotten off the ground this season. Freshman Stephanie Jones, junior All-American and Shannon Lewellen, and senior Spring Harris give the Women of Troy vault program enough talent to be a factor in the dual and conference meets and possibly beyond.

"This is an area in which we have been nonexistent until now," said Aloia. "We have now added up some athletes and we think we can be pretty good here. We are young, but we have talent. It depends on how they develop. Stephanie Jones was one of California's best coming out of high school, while the others have shown they can compete as well. We really have quality and depth in this area now."

The Women of Troy throws program is on a roll. Last season, a total of 22 of USC's 144 male athletes in the NCAA's High Stakes event won the javelin title as a freshman, while junior Justin Rodriguez and senior Cyrus Armstrong took first in the hammer and shot, respectively. These three, plus sophomore L'Orangean Crawford and Andy Thai, junior Conroy Young and sophomore Leslie Erickson make up what is, by far, the most talented throws group in USC history.

In the shot, team co-captain Ademiluy is a returning All-American and is second on the all-time USC list in that event. Not far behind is third place Crawford, who took sixth in the shot at the Pac-12 and is rapidly improving. "Andy came on top of the javelin and has loads of potential. "Andy came on top of the javelin and has loads of potential. That also is an absolute favorite of mine."

"Cyrus could break her school records this year and once again be an All-American," said Aloia. "She's the pushed hard in the shot by Crawford, who is very gifted and has the ability to

RON ALLICE

USC Director of Track & Field

Like a phoenix rising from the ashes, USC track and field has reemerged as a force on the collegiate scene.

Under the guidance of Director of Track and Field Ron Allice, the Women of Troy have become one of the top programs in the country, thanks to four consecutive Big Five finishes, including the 2011 NCAA team championship. Meanwhile, the Trojan men went on a run of seven consecutive top 10 finishes—a feat last accomplished during the late 1960s and early 1970s under former head-coach Frank Ciolek and have won three Pac-10 titles in the last five years. Last year, the Women of Troy won their first national championship and finished second at the Pac-10. The men's track season was highlighted by a huge upset win in the UCLA dual meet-USC's first win in the series in 22 months. The USC men also finished a close second to Stanford at the Pac-10, and later led for 20th at the NCAA. In 2010, he led the USC men's team to a seventh place showing and the Women of Troy to second, their best women's team showing at the NCAA. In 1999, USC was the only program that finished in the top five in both men's and women's track and field; in 1988, the Trojan men's team finished in seventh place while the women's team finished fifth place. In 1997, Allice directed the Trojan men's team to its first Pac-10 Conference title since 1977 (and 20th overall) before finishing first at the NCAA. In 1996, Allice guided the USC women's team to its first-ever Pac-10 title and directed the men's squad to a 10th-place finish at the NCAA. And in his first year at USC in 1995, he led the men's team to a fourth-place finish at the NCAA.

USC's past successes in track and field are well known: 29 NCAA championships (including two indoor titles), 61 world records, 47 Olympic team members, 42 Olympic gold medals and 16 medals in the U.S. National Track and Field Hall of Fame, all accumulated in 102 years of a rich and storied tradition.

And now, with the second century of Trojan track and field already well underway, Ron Allice and his staff continue to work hard to maintain the status of USC's most successful athletic program.

Allice, a prep standout at Long Beach (Calif.) Poly High, is well known for his ability to win. He scored that most-copied mark in 2:17.39 in 20 years at two schools, including 11 state championships in 14 years at Long Beach City College. His previous stop before landing at Troy, Allice's programs have produced more than 220 All-Americans, plus 16 Olympians, four world record holders and seven American record holders.

He has coached at his high school, junior college and college across nations in the way incorporating his outstanding coaching statistics.

Allice has certainly reached the top echelon of his career, although he has not forgotten the beginning of his coaching days. In his first coaching job, he guided the Long Beach Career, girls and women's AAU program, for four years (1964-68), expanding the squad from just five girls to more than 150 competitors. During that time, he was also a graduate assistant at Long Beach State in 1964, an assistant at Compton (Calif.) High in 1965 (the team was second at the CIF championships) and the head coach for track and cross country for two years (1967-68) at Wilson High in Long Beach.

The next three seasons (1969-71), he was the track and cross country coach at Poly High in Long Beach. His track teams went 25-4 and captured that Moore League title each year. His 1971 squad was named as California's top dual meet team and

He was inducted into Long Beach State's Athletic Hall of Fame in 1995.

Allge received his bachelor's degree in physical education in 1962 and his master's in physical education in 1970, both from Long Beach State.

He and his wife, Sharlene, have three children: Lance (34, who is a coach and marketing agent as well as a substitute teacher at Long Beach Poly High), Mercedes (24, a USC graduate who is a worker in the field of geriatric and special patient care in the Bay Area) and Evan (20, a graduate of the USC School of Cinema who works in film production).

After 12 years of coaching the Trojan Throws, Dan Lange is one of the nation's most respected coaches. Dan coached the athletes to All-American honors 23 times.

The 30-year-old Lange guided former Trojan and USC Olympian gold medalist Blake Klein to four consecutive NCAA hammer throw championships. Blake made the world and set USC records across the board with his best throw of 504.23 meters in 1997. Lange made 3 All in one, coaching Borgel Johnson to the 1997 NCAA hammer title. Johnson won three more All-American titles in 1998, 1999 and 2001. At the 2002 Pac-10 Championships, USC set a new All-Pacific record in the hammer, throwing 48.78 meters by Matt McTigue. In 2001, McTigue captured his first straight Pac-10 hammer title and then placed All-American honor.

On the women's side, he has coached 2001 NCAA javelin champion Inge Stenlund, All-American and current senior hammer record holder Justine Kelly, two-time hammer All-American, number one 1997 Pac-10 decathlete and USC All-American shot putter and Leslie Coon (a former American record holder in the hammer).

Lange is also currently coaching former U.S. Olympian Adam Beff (the No. 1 thrower in the U.S.).

A four-year letterman at Cal State Northridge and three-time NCAA Division II Championships medalist, Lange also earned All-American honors in the hammer.

Lange studied exercise physiology at Cal State Northridge and also works as a sports fitness specialist. He and his wife Darcy (Aronis), who was one of America's best middle distance runners and a former NCAA champion, reside in Valencia, Calif., with their son, Dylan, age one.

TOM WALSH*Distances/Women's Cross Country

Tom Walsh enters his eighth year as male and long distance coach at USC. He also served as the head women's cross country coach.

During the 1980s, the Women's Troy mile and long distance program has consistently been one of the best in the country.

During the last five years, USC male and long distance runners have captured All-American honors 22 times, including the 2001 NCAA 800m championship by four mile club member (right) Lanning, who is now one of the top 800m runners in the world. Walsh also coached Georgia Pace, a four-time All-American in the 1,500m. Pace finished third in 1996 and 1998, fourth in 1997 and was runner-up in 1995. Graham Doherty was a two-time All-American in the 3,000m in 1996-97. Arne Lisander twice earned All-American honors in the 3000m, finishing fifth in 1996 and fourth in 2000. In 2001 cross country coach Sarah Ellis became only the third Trojan ever to qualify for the NCAA after finishing 15th at the NCAA West Regional.

Walsh graduated from USC in 1988, and earned a graduate assistantship in his senior year for three years in the late 1980s. He also worked as a track and field consultant for ABC and NBC during the U.S. Olympic Trials.

Last season, he guided Stephen Cheever to second straight Pac-10 triple jump championships and a first place finish at the NCAA. On the men's side in 2001, Chase Roberts became the first Trojan to win both the long jump and triple jump at the Pac-10 since Luther Hayes in 1974.

A 1987 graduate of USC, his name is still among the top ten triple jumpers on the all-time Trojan chart. As a high school senior Mike qualified for the CIF Championship in four individual events and went on to win the triple jump, in which he placed 9th in the USC state meet. Mike attended California Polytechnic State University, where he was a member of the USC Track & Field Club. He was forced to get track wide due to injuries and four ankle surgeries in 1996.

WOMEN OF TROY CROSS COUNTRY

The 2001 Women of Troy Cross Country Team

The 2001 USC women's cross country team mixed their youth and experience together to finish the season very strong.

The Women of Troy were led by senior Sarah Ellis, who became only the third women in USC history to qualify for the NCAA Championships. Ellis, a transfer from BYU, had her best season ever and helped the Women of Troy finish in the top four of ever invitational she competed in. She also improved her PR in the 6000 meters to 21:50.

Senior Sinfo Orosco, the backbone of the team, had a very consistent season. Freshmen Heather Hennessy and Lisa Rotsel also helped pace the Women of Troy to a first place finish at the Long Beach State Invitational.

Coach Tom Walsh (8th year) expects next year's team to be improved thanks to the return of Aleksandra Deren and Brooke Thomas, who both redshirted in 2001.

KATHERINE B. LOKER STADIUM

Home of USC Track and Field

Katherine B. Loker Stadium was made possible by a generous donation from Katherine B. Loker. The 3,000-seat stadium opened in the 2001 season and was dedicated on May 5 during the USC-UCLA dual meet. The facility includes track offices, locker rooms, an athlete lounge and meeting rooms. Loker stadium will host the 2003 Pac-10 Championships.
