

BAROCK OIL GAS AND WATER BV

Legal & Compliance Manual

Executive Statement

Executive Statement Barock Oil Gas and Water BV is dedicated to maintaining a strong culture of compliance, accountability and operational excellence throughout every aspect of its storage and logistics activities. This area of our management system establishes clear responsibilities, documented procedures and measurable objectives to ensure business activities are performed consistently and professionally. Management encourages ethical decision-making, transparent communication and strict adherence to applicable legislation, contractual commitments and recognised industry practices. Employees are expected to understand their responsibilities, follow approved operating procedures and immediately report concerns that could affect safety, quality or regulatory compliance. Regular management reviews, internal monitoring and continuous improvement initiatives help strengthen operational performance while reducing legal, financial and reputational risks. Our approach promotes customer confidence, protects company assets, supports sustainable growth and reinforces our commitment to providing dependable storage and logistics services. Through ongoing training, documented controls, performance evaluations and responsible leadership, Barock continues to enhance its management systems and deliver services that meet the expectations of customers, business partners and relevant authorities.

About Barock

About Barock Barock Oil Gas and Water BV is dedicated to maintaining a strong culture of compliance, accountability and operational excellence throughout every aspect of its storage and logistics activities. This area of our management system establishes clear responsibilities, documented procedures and measurable objectives to ensure business activities are performed consistently and professionally. Management encourages ethical decision-making, transparent communication and strict adherence to applicable legislation, contractual commitments and recognised industry practices. Employees are expected to understand their responsibilities, follow approved operating procedures and immediately report concerns that could affect safety, quality or regulatory compliance. Regular management reviews, internal monitoring and continuous improvement initiatives help strengthen operational performance while reducing legal, financial and reputational risks. Our approach promotes customer confidence, protects company assets, supports sustainable growth and reinforces our commitment to providing dependable storage and logistics services. Through ongoing training, documented controls, performance evaluations and responsible leadership, Barock continues to enhance its management systems and deliver services that meet the expectations of customers, business partners and relevant authorities.

Corporate Governance

Corporate Governance Barock Oil Gas and Water BV is dedicated to maintaining a strong culture of compliance, accountability and operational excellence throughout every aspect of its storage and logistics activities. This area of our management system establishes clear responsibilities, documented procedures and measurable objectives to ensure business activities are performed consistently and professionally. Management encourages ethical decision-making, transparent communication and strict adherence to applicable legislation, contractual commitments and recognised industry practices. Employees are expected to understand their responsibilities, follow approved operating procedures and immediately report concerns that could affect safety, quality or regulatory compliance. Regular management reviews, internal monitoring and continuous improvement initiatives help strengthen operational performance while reducing legal, financial and reputational risks. Our approach promotes customer confidence, protects company assets, supports sustainable growth and reinforces our commitment to providing dependable storage and logistics services. Through ongoing training, documented controls, performance evaluations and responsible leadership, Barock continues to enhance its management systems and deliver services that meet the expectations of customers, business partners and relevant authorities.

Code of Ethics

Code of Ethics Barock Oil Gas and Water BV is dedicated to maintaining a strong culture of compliance, accountability and operational excellence throughout every aspect of its storage and logistics activities. This area of our management system establishes clear responsibilities, documented procedures and measurable objectives to ensure business activities are performed consistently and professionally. Management encourages ethical decision-making, transparent communication and strict adherence to applicable legislation, contractual commitments and recognised industry practices. Employees are expected to understand their responsibilities, follow approved operating procedures and immediately report concerns that could affect safety, quality or regulatory compliance. Regular management reviews, internal monitoring and continuous improvement initiatives help strengthen operational performance while reducing legal, financial and reputational risks. Our approach promotes customer confidence, protects company assets, supports sustainable growth and reinforces our commitment to providing dependable storage and logistics services. Through ongoing training, documented controls, performance evaluations and responsible leadership, Barock continues to enhance its management systems and deliver services that meet the expectations of customers, business partners and relevant authorities.

Legal Compliance

Legal Compliance Barock Oil Gas and Water BV is dedicated to maintaining a strong culture of compliance, accountability and operational excellence throughout every aspect of its storage and logistics activities. This area of our management system establishes clear responsibilities, documented procedures and measurable objectives to ensure business activities are performed consistently and professionally. Management encourages ethical decision-making, transparent communication and strict adherence to applicable legislation, contractual commitments and recognised industry practices. Employees are expected to understand their responsibilities, follow approved operating procedures and immediately report concerns that could affect safety, quality or regulatory compliance. Regular management reviews, internal monitoring and continuous improvement initiatives help strengthen operational performance while reducing legal, financial and reputational risks. Our approach promotes customer confidence, protects company assets, supports sustainable growth and reinforces our commitment to providing dependable storage and logistics services. Through ongoing training, documented controls, performance evaluations and responsible leadership, Barock continues to enhance its management systems and deliver services that meet the expectations of customers, business partners and relevant authorities.

Health, Safety & Environment (HSE)

Health, Safety & Environment (HSE) Barock Oil Gas and Water BV is dedicated to maintaining a strong culture of compliance, accountability and operational excellence throughout every aspect of its storage and logistics activities. This area of our management system establishes clear responsibilities, documented procedures and measurable objectives to ensure business activities are performed consistently and professionally. Management encourages ethical decision-making, transparent communication and strict adherence to applicable legislation, contractual commitments and recognised industry practices. Employees are expected to understand their responsibilities, follow approved operating procedures and immediately report concerns that could affect safety, quality or regulatory compliance. Regular management reviews, internal monitoring and continuous improvement initiatives help strengthen operational performance while reducing legal, financial and reputational risks. Our approach promotes customer confidence, protects company assets, supports sustainable growth and reinforces our commitment to providing dependable storage and logistics services. Through ongoing training, documented controls, performance evaluations and responsible leadership, Barock continues to enhance its management systems and deliver services that meet the expectations of customers, business partners and relevant authorities.

Anti-Bribery & Anti-Corruption

Anti-Bribery & Anti-Corruption Barock Oil Gas and Water BV is dedicated to maintaining a strong culture of compliance, accountability and operational excellence throughout every aspect of its storage and logistics activities. This area of our management system establishes clear responsibilities, documented procedures and measurable objectives to ensure business activities are performed consistently and professionally. Management encourages ethical decision-making, transparent communication and strict adherence to applicable legislation, contractual commitments and recognised industry practices. Employees are expected to understand their responsibilities, follow approved operating procedures and immediately report concerns that could affect safety, quality or regulatory compliance. Regular management reviews, internal monitoring and continuous improvement initiatives help strengthen operational performance while reducing legal, financial and reputational risks. Our approach promotes customer confidence, protects company assets, supports sustainable growth and reinforces our commitment to providing dependable storage and logistics services. Through ongoing training, documented controls, performance evaluations and responsible leadership, Barock continues to enhance its management systems and deliver services that meet the expectations of customers, business partners and relevant authorities.

AML & KYC

AML & KYC Barock Oil Gas and Water BV is dedicated to maintaining a strong culture of compliance, accountability and operational excellence throughout every aspect of its storage and logistics activities. This area of our management system establishes clear responsibilities, documented procedures and measurable objectives to ensure business activities are performed consistently and professionally. Management encourages ethical decision-making, transparent communication and strict adherence to applicable legislation, contractual commitments and recognised industry practices. Employees are expected to understand their responsibilities, follow approved operating procedures and immediately report concerns that could affect safety, quality or regulatory compliance. Regular management reviews, internal monitoring and continuous improvement initiatives help strengthen operational performance while reducing legal, financial and reputational risks. Our approach promotes customer confidence, protects company assets, supports sustainable growth and reinforces our commitment to providing dependable storage and logistics services. Through ongoing training, documented controls, performance evaluations and responsible leadership, Barock continues to enhance its management systems and deliver services that meet the expectations of customers, business partners and relevant authorities.

Trade & Sanctions Compliance

Trade & Sanctions Compliance Barock Oil Gas and Water BV is dedicated to maintaining a strong culture of compliance, accountability and operational excellence throughout every aspect of its storage and logistics activities. This area of our management system establishes clear responsibilities, documented procedures and measurable objectives to ensure business activities are performed consistently and professionally. Management encourages ethical decision-making, transparent communication and strict adherence to applicable legislation, contractual commitments and recognised industry practices. Employees are expected to understand their responsibilities, follow approved operating procedures and immediately report concerns that could affect safety, quality or regulatory compliance. Regular management reviews, internal monitoring and continuous improvement initiatives help strengthen operational performance while reducing legal, financial and reputational risks. Our approach promotes customer confidence, protects company assets, supports sustainable growth and reinforces our commitment to providing dependable storage and logistics services. Through ongoing training, documented controls, performance evaluations and responsible leadership, Barock continues to enhance its management systems and deliver services that meet the expectations of customers, business partners and relevant authorities.

Storage Operations

Storage Operations Barock Oil Gas and Water BV is dedicated to maintaining a strong culture of compliance, accountability and operational excellence throughout every aspect of its storage and logistics activities. This area of our management system establishes clear responsibilities, documented procedures and measurable objectives to ensure business activities are performed consistently and professionally. Management encourages ethical decision-making, transparent communication and strict adherence to applicable legislation, contractual commitments and recognised industry practices. Employees are expected to understand their responsibilities, follow approved operating procedures and immediately report concerns that could affect safety, quality or regulatory compliance. Regular management reviews, internal monitoring and continuous improvement initiatives help strengthen operational performance while reducing legal, financial and reputational risks. Our approach promotes customer confidence, protects company assets, supports sustainable growth and reinforces our commitment to providing dependable storage and logistics services. Through ongoing training, documented controls, performance evaluations and responsible leadership, Barock continues to enhance its management systems and deliver services that meet the expectations of customers, business partners and relevant authorities.

Marine Logistics

Marine Logistics Barock Oil Gas and Water BV is dedicated to maintaining a strong culture of compliance, accountability and operational excellence throughout every aspect of its storage and logistics activities. This area of our management system establishes clear responsibilities, documented procedures and measurable objectives to ensure business activities are performed consistently and professionally. Management encourages ethical decision-making, transparent communication and strict adherence to applicable legislation, contractual commitments and recognised industry practices. Employees are expected to understand their responsibilities, follow approved operating procedures and immediately report concerns that could affect safety, quality or regulatory compliance. Regular management reviews, internal monitoring and continuous improvement initiatives help strengthen operational performance while reducing legal, financial and reputational risks. Our approach promotes customer confidence, protects company assets, supports sustainable growth and reinforces our commitment to providing dependable storage and logistics services. Through ongoing training, documented controls, performance evaluations and responsible leadership, Barock continues to enhance its management systems and deliver services that meet the expectations of customers, business partners and relevant authorities.

Environmental Sustainability

Environmental Sustainability Barock Oil Gas and Water BV is dedicated to maintaining a strong culture of compliance, accountability and operational excellence throughout every aspect of its storage and logistics activities. This area of our management system establishes clear responsibilities, documented procedures and measurable objectives to ensure business activities are performed consistently and professionally. Management encourages ethical decision-making, transparent communication and strict adherence to applicable legislation, contractual commitments and recognised industry practices. Employees are expected to understand their responsibilities, follow approved operating procedures and immediately report concerns that could affect safety, quality or regulatory compliance. Regular management reviews, internal monitoring and continuous improvement initiatives help strengthen operational performance while reducing legal, financial and reputational risks. Our approach promotes customer confidence, protects company assets, supports sustainable growth and reinforces our commitment to providing dependable storage and logistics services. Through ongoing training, documented controls, performance evaluations and responsible leadership, Barock continues to enhance its management systems and deliver services that meet the expectations of customers, business partners and relevant authorities.

Risk Management

Risk Management Barock Oil Gas and Water BV is dedicated to maintaining a strong culture of compliance, accountability and operational excellence throughout every aspect of its storage and logistics activities. This area of our management system establishes clear responsibilities, documented procedures and measurable objectives to ensure business activities are performed consistently and professionally. Management encourages ethical decision-making, transparent communication and strict adherence to applicable legislation, contractual commitments and recognised industry practices. Employees are expected to understand their responsibilities, follow approved operating procedures and immediately report concerns that could affect safety, quality or regulatory compliance. Regular management reviews, internal monitoring and continuous improvement initiatives help strengthen operational performance while reducing legal, financial and reputational risks. Our approach promotes customer confidence, protects company assets, supports sustainable growth and reinforces our commitment to providing dependable storage and logistics services. Through ongoing training, documented controls, performance evaluations and responsible leadership, Barock continues to enhance its management systems and deliver services that meet the expectations of customers, business partners and relevant authorities.

Internal Audits

Internal Audits Barock Oil Gas and Water BV is dedicated to maintaining a strong culture of compliance, accountability and operational excellence throughout every aspect of its storage and logistics activities. This area of our management system establishes clear responsibilities, documented procedures and measurable objectives to ensure business activities are performed consistently and professionally. Management encourages ethical decision-making, transparent communication and strict adherence to applicable legislation, contractual commitments and recognised industry practices. Employees are expected to understand their responsibilities, follow approved operating procedures and immediately report concerns that could affect safety, quality or regulatory compliance. Regular management reviews, internal monitoring and continuous improvement initiatives help strengthen operational performance while reducing legal, financial and reputational risks. Our approach promotes customer confidence, protects company assets, supports sustainable growth and reinforces our commitment to providing dependable storage and logistics services. Through ongoing training, documented controls, performance evaluations and responsible leadership, Barock continues to enhance its management systems and deliver services that meet the expectations of customers, business partners and relevant authorities.

Training & Competency

Training & Competency Barock Oil Gas and Water BV is dedicated to maintaining a strong culture of compliance, accountability and operational excellence throughout every aspect of its storage and logistics activities. This area of our management system establishes clear responsibilities, documented procedures and measurable objectives to ensure business activities are performed consistently and professionally. Management encourages ethical decision-making, transparent communication and strict adherence to applicable legislation, contractual commitments and recognised industry practices. Employees are expected to understand their responsibilities, follow approved operating procedures and immediately report concerns that could affect safety, quality or regulatory compliance. Regular management reviews, internal monitoring and continuous improvement initiatives help strengthen operational performance while reducing legal, financial and reputational risks. Our approach promotes customer confidence, protects company assets, supports sustainable growth and reinforces our commitment to providing dependable storage and logistics services. Through ongoing training, documented controls, performance evaluations and responsible leadership, Barock continues to enhance its management systems and deliver services that meet the expectations of customers, business partners and relevant authorities.

Business Continuity

Business Continuity Barock Oil Gas and Water BV is dedicated to maintaining a strong culture of compliance, accountability and operational excellence throughout every aspect of its storage and logistics activities. This area of our management system establishes clear responsibilities, documented procedures and measurable objectives to ensure business activities are performed consistently and professionally. Management encourages ethical decision-making, transparent communication and strict adherence to applicable legislation, contractual commitments and recognised industry practices. Employees are expected to understand their responsibilities, follow approved operating procedures and immediately report concerns that could affect safety, quality or regulatory compliance. Regular management reviews, internal monitoring and continuous improvement initiatives help strengthen operational performance while reducing legal, financial and reputational risks. Our approach promotes customer confidence, protects company assets, supports sustainable growth and reinforces our commitment to providing dependable storage and logistics services. Through ongoing training, documented controls, performance evaluations and responsible leadership, Barock continues to enhance its management systems and deliver services that meet the expectations of customers, business partners and relevant authorities.

Data Protection

Data Protection Barrock Oil Gas and Water BV is dedicated to maintaining a strong culture of compliance, accountability and operational excellence throughout every aspect of its storage and logistics activities. This area of our management system establishes clear responsibilities, documented procedures and measurable objectives to ensure business activities are performed consistently and professionally. Management encourages ethical decision-making, transparent communication and strict adherence to applicable legislation, contractual commitments and recognised industry practices. Employees are expected to understand their responsibilities, follow approved operating procedures and immediately report concerns that could affect safety, quality or regulatory compliance. Regular management reviews, internal monitoring and continuous improvement initiatives help strengthen operational performance while reducing legal, financial and reputational risks. Our approach promotes customer confidence, protects company assets, supports sustainable growth and reinforces our commitment to providing dependable storage and logistics services. Through ongoing training, documented controls, performance evaluations and responsible leadership, Barrock continues to enhance its management systems and deliver services that meet the expectations of customers, business partners and relevant authorities.

Compliance Declaration

Compliance Declaration Barock Oil Gas and Water BV is dedicated to maintaining a strong culture of compliance, accountability and operational excellence throughout every aspect of its storage and logistics activities. This area of our management system establishes clear responsibilities, documented procedures and measurable objectives to ensure business activities are performed consistently and professionally. Management encourages ethical decision-making, transparent communication and strict adherence to applicable legislation, contractual commitments and recognised industry practices. Employees are expected to understand their responsibilities, follow approved operating procedures and immediately report concerns that could affect safety, quality or regulatory compliance. Regular management reviews, internal monitoring and continuous improvement initiatives help strengthen operational performance while reducing legal, financial and reputational risks. Our approach promotes customer confidence, protects company assets, supports sustainable growth and reinforces our commitment to providing dependable storage and logistics services. Through ongoing training, documented controls, performance evaluations and responsible leadership, Barock continues to enhance its management systems and deliver services that meet the expectations of customers, business partners and relevant authorities.