A BIG THANK YOU from Eastside Ministries.

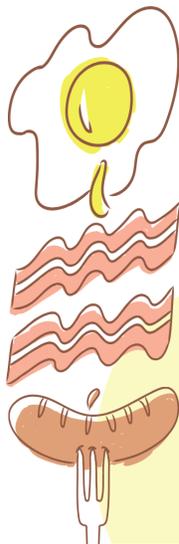

Through your generous donation of holiday meals, toys and Christmas By Candlelight donations during the month of December, we were able to serve 817 meals to the unshoused, food and clothing to 709 households with a total of 2,030 family members, and Christmas toys to brighten the holiday for 99 families with a total of 785 members. May God bless you for your generosity.

Our Christmas By Candlelight program this year was a joyous reflection on the Christmas story from the perspective of the shepherds. Our special thanks to all those who made it possible. This was a special collaboration of Kevin Short, Mary Pastusek, and the St. Rita choir. Mary and Mike Crader, Lori Strittmatter and Jane Goodenough continued to provide leadership, hearts and hands in creating a lovely evening for all who attended. Thank you.

As we move into 2026, please consider how you can support this important ministry. Contact Eastside Ministries at (817)-446-3278 if you would like to volunteer, consider becoming a monthly donor, or want to donate your gently used clothing and household items for folks on the East side.

The First Reading is taken from the Book of the Prophet Isaiah 9:1-4. This reading is another prophecy, concerning the messianic days, given by Isaiah in the eighth century B.C. It describes the new era of liberty and joy, which the future Messiah will usher in.

The Second Reading is from the First Letter of Saint Paul to the Corinthians 1:10-13, 17. St. Paul corrects the Corinthians for the pride that was causing them to form factions and divisions.

The Gospel is from St. Matthew 4:12-23. The prophet Isaiah announced a future of liberation and great joy for all of Galilee, through the image of light that dispels the darkness in which the people walk. The Gospel, quoting verbatim the same passage of the prophet Isaiah, presents Jesus as the Light thus fulfilling Isaiah's prophecy. He is the light that was promised to dispel the darkness of sin and to free man from the obscurity in which he is enclosed.

La Primera Lectura está tomada del Libro del Profeta Isaías 9:1-4. Esta lectura es otra profecía, referente a los tiempos mesiánicos, dada por Isaías en el siglo VIII a.C. Describe la nueva era de libertad y alegría que inaugurará el futuro Mesías.

La Segunda Lectura es de la Primera Carta de San Pablo a los Corintios 1:10-13, 17. San Pablo reprende a los corintios por el orgullo que los llevaba a formar facciones y divisiones.

El Evangelio es de San Mateo 4:12-23. El profeta Isaías anunció un futuro de liberación y gran alegría para toda Galilea, mediante la imagen de la luz que disipa la oscuridad en la que vive el pueblo. El Evangelio, citando textualmente el mismo pasaje del profeta Isaías, presenta a Jesús como la Luz, cumpliendo así la profecía de Isaías. Él es la luz prometida para disipar la oscuridad del pecado y liberar al hombre de la tiniebla que lo envuelve.
