Zach was in a potentially career ending wreck when a fellow US Legends Car competitor came down on the outside causing the two race cars to touch wheels sending Zach head on into the turn 3 wall. This horrific accident would bring an end to his Rookie season in Legend cars only halfway through the season. After three and a half months of recovering from his broken leg and months of grueling rehab, Zach was back on the track competing at Southern National Motorsports Park in the final race of that season. That day, he finished FIRST in his division
