

"Confronting the Radical Dangers to Our Families and Our Future."

Put New Orleans on your calendar!

The Big East will host the 52nd International Convention of the Coalition of Black Trade Unionists, May 24-29, 2023.

Our theme is "Confronting the Radical Dangers to Our Families and Our Future."

These are perilous times. Let's come together and leave fired up to do the work we need to do. You can read the official CBTU Convention here, <https://convention.cbtu.info>. You can also register online and/or review and print all convention related materials.

See you in New Orleans!

In Solidarity,

Rev. Terrence "Terry" Melvin, President
